

SUPPORT TO SAVE MEDEN POOL AND SPORTS CENTRE

A massive thank you to all members of the public who attended our meeting at Meden School on Friday 17th February 2017 about the decision to cease MDC's management of Meden Pool/Sports Centre and its likely closure.

Despite the overwhelming view of the public urging the Portfolio Holder for the Environment to defer taking his decision on Tuesday 21st February 2017, his reassurance that all views of public would be fully considered and a direct appeal to defer the decision in a letter from the Parish Council to the Mayor (copies of the minutes of the meeting and letter to the Mayor are available on the Parish Council website).

The decision to cease MDC's management of the centre was taken anyway. The Mayor has to date failed to respond to my letter. Members of the public who attended the delegated decision meeting were amazed at how poorly they were treated with many questions asked remaining unanswered.

This appalling decision was duly "called in" and is now progressing through the MDC Scrutiny process being investigated by Overview and Scrutiny Committee 2. Members of the public have asked further questions and these should receive factually correct answers. The outcome of the Scrutiny Committee investigation is hard to predict but if the delegated decision is allowed to stand, notice will be served on Notts County Council, Meden School and Leisure Trust with MDC withdrawing from the centre in April 2018.

We as a Parish Council will continue to explore all avenues to save the current pool swimming services whilst seeking possible funding to achieve a new build pool and sports centre here in WARSOP! This may be a tall order but we will continue to make maximum effort – unlike the District Council who have failed to make any realistic funding bids to deliver a new build project.

The fight goes on!

Editor's Letter

As I write this, news of terrible events in Westminster is echoing all over the media. Whilst we may be distant in our little district from such atrocities, we still feel the pain.

This aside, there are many more heroes in our world other than the people that commit these atrocious acts.

On a lighter note, MDC are inviting you to nominate your local hero, please see the feature on page 7.

Also on page 7 is an article explaining why the Parish Council have had to raise their precept this year. This rise equates to less than 8 pence per week, per household, but will show as a significant percentage increase on your bill.

In other news, our congratulations go to the staff and pupils of Birklands Primary School on their recent successful Ofsted - see page 8.

Promote Your Business by Advertising in Warsop & District News

The best way to reach local people and promote your business is to advertise locally. Warsop & District News is one of the largest free local publications in the area.

6,000 papers are printed and distributed every month.

Approx 5,700 are delivered to every household and business in the Parish of Warsop, the rest are distributed in the library, Town Hall, health centres, dentist, care homes, Meden Vale Charity shop and Cuckney shop.

At a fraction of the cost of some other well known publications you not only reach your target audience but get value for money too.

Rates are as follows:

Set Sizes	Quarter page	130 x 163mm	£95.00
	Half page	265 x 163mm	£170.00
	Full page	265 x 330mm	£290.00

Run of paper Ads are charged at £6.00 per column cm. Columns are 8.5cm wide (eg. monthly advertising cost for an 8.5 x 4cm = £24.00)

Single Column	up to 15cm
Double Column	up to 7cm
Triple Column	up to 6cm

For sizes above these it's cheaper to have a quarter page so call in or phone to ask for a quote. (01623 846011)

With rates like these you can't afford not to!

GARDENING MONTHLY...

General tasks and garden maintenance

If frost is forecast, don't be tempted to put out tender bedding until much later on in the month, and even then be prepared to cover it if necessary.

Deadhead daffodils and narcissi; give them a liquid feed or a sprinkling of bonemeal and then let them die down. Don't cut off the leaves as they are necessary to replenish the bulb for next year. Keep deadheading spring bedding to keep it looking neat, and to encourage new flowers.

Continue with the spring cleaning. Hoe your borders, getting rid of weeds before they take hold - annual weeds such as bitter cress and groundsel are enough of a nightmare without allowing them to go forth and multiply by seeding. If it's dry, attack ground elder and the like with systemic weed killer painted onto the leaves.

Mulch away while you can still see what you are doing and before the herbaceous growth really takes off. Use your own garden compost or leaf mould, well rotted manure, the contents of out-of-date grow bags or ready-made soil conditioner.

Now the soil is warming up and things are starting to grow, add general purpose fertiliser before covering with mulch especially in borders, the fruit and vegetable patch and containers. If you have already mulched, draw it back (if possible), tease the soil a little, add fertiliser and replace the mulch.

Carry on removing moss and weeds from paths, terraces and drives.

Make new beds and borders - mark the shape with sand trickled from a bottle, remove the top layer of growing vegetation and dig the ground over, incorporating as much organic matter as possible. If you are making a bed in the lawn, remove the turf - if you dig it in the buried grass will regrow.

Clean and repair your garden tools, book the lawn mower in for a service and check garden furniture for any rot. When it is warm enough, treat sheds, fences and trellis with wood preservative; brushes and rollers are fine for most things, however a sprayer is well worth buying for tricky projects such as woven panels!

Now is the time to wage war on slugs and snails. They love tulips and delicacies such as the delicious young shoots of delphiniums and the like, so use pet-friendly slug pellets, and drench the ground around hostas with liquid slug killer to exterminate slugs below the surface. Keep an eye out for snails and pick them off - what you do with them is up to you. Birds are your friends here - flat stones artfully located are useful accessories for birds to practise their snail catching techniques.

Birds

Birds will be building their nests now in preparation for laying their eggs. Do keep putting out bird food - they quickly become accustomed to regular food supplies and it's a real treat to see wild birds in the garden.

Lawns

Most lawns are looking a far cry from the emerald swards of last year. Unless the weather stays filthy and cold in which case it is better to wait for balmy days, feed with a spring lawn feed to encourage new growth (these have a high nitrogen content to encourage leaf growth), mow regularly (start with the blades high for the first couple of cuts), overseed bare patches and apply weed and moss killer. Rake out or scarify after applying moss killer or you will merely be spreading moss to the rest of your lawn!

Now is the ideal time to sow new lawns on well prepared ground - if you are unsure, please ask for help and advice in the garden centre.

GARDEN WASTE Collection Service Set to Start

Mansfield District Council's Garden Waste collection service is getting set for the forthcoming season, which begins in April.

The Garden Waste collection service runs from April 2017 to March 2018 and costs £30 a year, with a cost of £15 for each extra bin, up to a maximum of four bins. Collections take place fortnightly from April until November, with monthly collections running from December to February, returning to fortnightly collections in March to deal with the start of garden clearing activity in the spring.

The Garden Waste brown bin can be used for:

- grass cuttings
- hedge trimmings
- leaves
- small branches and twigs
- plants
- weeds
- cut flowers.

Invoices for the new season will be sent to all existing customers from 20 February 2017. Since January, the service has seen 1885 new customers sign up to pay for the service by Direct Debit.

For those customers who have signed up to pay by Direct Debit, the payment will be taken on 10 March.

From 20 March, information packs and bin stickers for 2017/18 will be sent to customers who have paid for the service.

Mansfield residents who wish to use the Garden Waste collection service this year and have not yet signed up will be able to register online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/gardenwaste from 20 March.

The annual cost of the service remains the same at £30, regardless of when people sign up to the scheme, so residents are urged join now to get the most out of the service.

New customers can pay for the service at PayPoints outlets, at the Post Office, online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/payments or by using the council's automated 24 hour telephone payment line 01623 428632.

The first collection for the 2017/18 year will start from Monday 3 April 2017.

Cllr Andrew Tristram, Portfolio Holder for the Environment said:

"I would encourage everyone to make use of our Garden Waste Collection Service. This is a year-round service, with garden waste collected from people's doorsteps, which saves them the time and effort of bagging up their waste and making trips to the tip. It also helps to reduce the amount of waste sent to landfill and the volume of greenhouse gases produced. The waste we collect is used to make compost, so it really does help the environment."

WARSOP Footpath & Countryside Group

Bluebells will be reappearing this month. In Warsop, we are lucky to have several woodlands where a fine display can be seen each year.

Church Warsop Woods, Hanger Hill Drive and The Shrubbery at Nettleworth are all worth a visit. If you know where to look, you may also spot Early Purple Orchids in flower on grassland sites during the last few days of April.

Ground nesting birds are starting to find their nest sites at this time of year. Some will choose sites on farmland but many will choose a spot on heathland and open areas in woodland. Nightjars and Woodlark are two species needing special protection so it is particularly important that dog walkers ensure that their pets are under close control when around the woods and heathland between Warsop, Budby and Edwinstowe. Recently, felled parts of the forest are a particularly important area.

Hopefully, we will be enjoying some dry weather and many of our footpaths will become less muddy. However, damage from motorbikes and horses has affected the surface along several routes. It is illegal for motorbikes to use any footpath or bridleway and horse riders should only use bridleways. All paths should have a signpost that identifies the type of path. If you are concerned about illegal use of a right-of-way please report any incidents by phoning the police on 101. If enough reports are submitted, action is more likely.

April is possibly our quietest month for footpaths maintenance. Any hedge work has ceased as the birds are starting to nest and we are delaying the first grass cut of the year until May. Once this work starts, we will welcome any offers of help, this work only gets completed because volunteers are happy to give up their time.

Warsop Footpaths & Countryside Group's Annual General Meeting will be held at 7pm on Tuesday 25th April. If you would like to attend, please contact us as we have yet to confirm where it will take place.

Our next group walk is scheduled for Saturday 15th April. We will meet outside Warsop Library at 10am before setting off on a walk around Warsop or traveling by car to a starting point further afield. Contact us if you would like to join us or check our Facebook page. On Saturday 29th April there will be the annual walk to along Warsop's eastern boundary organised by The Friends of Thynghowe. Check their column elsewhere in Warsop & District News for more details.

Creative Warsop ProjectThe Creative Warsop project is currently taking place at Infotech in Warsop Town Hall.

It is sponsored by the Big Warsop fund and enables people to explore their creative side. There is a wealth of opportunities to explore a range of techniques and learn in a fun environment, then create something good in the community.

Project leader, WEA Tutor, Caroline Hughes commented:

"It's great to see this happening! I was originally inspired through teaching a mosaic group in Warsop where I noticed how people achieved through working together and sharing skills. I have felt really excited as already there is sharing crafting with family members and local groups. A sewing group had a go at mosaics and a craft group enjoyed learning new things. Early follow-on ideas are an allotment group and joining forces with local businesses."

The programme has a range of taster workshops across different days and times in February and March. People can have a go at the free 2 hour workshops and then take something away, but they should let us know if they are coming along. Following the tasters, there is the option to enrol on 5 or 6 week courses in April or September. Some may then choose to take part in creating a community piece, such as a large mosaic, or helping to create a community garden.

This project is kindly supported by Big Warsop, so it offers opportunities for anyone living in the Warsop immediate area. The WEA funded taster sessions are free and are held in an accessible space at Warsop Infotech.

Details of the taster sessions and courses (both funded and provided by WEA) are listed in this publication. Also information can be found on the Infotech programme and Creative Warsop facebook site.

Play Your Part in Worldwide Clean Up

Help to improve the appearance of our district by signing up to take part in International Clean Up Mansfield Day.

The event, organised by Mansfield District Council, is in its fifth year and attracts participants from towns and cities called Mansfield in the USA and Australia as well as in the UK.

Individuals, schools, businesses, conservation and community groups are invited to join the Mayor, councillors and council staff on Friday 9 June. You can sign up online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/cleanup to take part in big or small activities that improve the local environment. These can include picking up litter, planting trees or bulbs, cleaning or painting your premises or anything else of your choice.

Plans are well underway for June's event with previous participants locally as well as in Pennsylvania in the USA, and in Victoria, Australia, having expressed an interest in being involved.

Cllr Andrew Tristram, Portfolio Holder for the Environment, said:

"Our council staff including Street Cleansing and Parks teams do a great job all year round of keeping our district clean and looking good but this is your chance to get involved and help us to make a special concentrated effort to improve the area around where you live or work."

"There are lots of ways to get involved and they don't have to involve giving up lots of your time - you could pledge to pick litter on your walk to work or during your lunch break."

"Volunteering has lots of benefits including making a difference, being part of a community, meeting people and making new friends, and learning new skills. There's nothing to lose so sign up now!"

Like the International Clean Up Mansfield Day Facebook page at facebook.com/cleanupmansfield to keep up to date with the latest news and to share your own activities and photos.

Warsop Men's Probus

President Hugh Ashton welcomed members to the Parish Centre to a talk by Anne Brown on her life in Tennis.

Anne who was born in Wales did not play tennis until she was at college and eventually played for England in many international matches and as well as at Wimbledon. She and her husband and children all played but now she is retired, she still plays for her local club and in various tournaments.

22 members then had a break in the stable bar before having lunch in the Fizzerbert room.

President Hugh Ashton also chaired the Annual General Committee meeting of the Warsop Men's Probus Club. John Hosty was thanked for his years of service as Secretary and Brian Booth was elected as the new secretary.

After the committee meeting, the Annual General Meeting was started with the new secretary in place. Bill Power treasurer gave a financial report and stated that our Subs will remain at £25.00. Then, after a break in the stable bar, 20 members had lunch in the Fizzerbert room.

The next meeting will be on April 19th when the speaker will be Brian Booth talking about the 'History Beneath Our Feet'

Town View Housing Scheme for Older People Making Progress

Town View, a new housing scheme for people aged 55 and over, which is being developed on the site of the former General Hospital in Mansfield, is making steady progress.

The site was derelict for about 20 years before the council bought it for redevelopment, bringing the vacant site back into productive use.

The £8.54m scheme will have 54 new homes, made up of 12 two bedroom bungalows and 42 one-bedroom and two-bedroom apartments. Six of the bungalows will be available as older person's shared ownership homes funded by £126,000 from the Homes and Communities Agency. The bungalows and apartments will all be positioned around a landscaped village green setting, with a trim trail and outdoor fitness equipment.

The apartment block will also offer communal facilities, such as a lounge, a dining room and an outdoor terraced area.

Town View is a mixed needs development, meaning that it will offer housing for residents with different requirements, from active older people to those with support and extra care needs. The scheme includes 10 extra care apartments, funded by £400,000 from Nottinghamshire County Council.

Kate Allsop, Mansfield District Council's Executive Mayor, said:

"This is an excellent example of how the district council is working in partnership to breathe new life into a derelict site, providing much-needed specialist housing for our older residents and meet the needs of local residents. This supports our priority to make Mansfield a thriving and sustainable district for the benefit of all."

Cllr Muriel Weisz, Chair of Nottinghamshire County Council's Adult Social Care and health Committee, said:

"This is the second extra care scheme that the County Council has funded in Mansfield in partnership with the district council, which will offer local older people with care needs a real alternative to traditional residential care."

"Once complete early next year, its residents will benefit from the independence of having their own home with on-site care and support as well as communal spaces and activities for social interaction."

Jo Jamieson, Managing Director of Wates Residential, commented:

"Successful delivery of a specialist development like Town View is only possible when client and developer work in close partnership and our team have been making excellent progress since work commenced on site in August last year."

"Our strengthening relationship with Mansfield District Council has ensured that we understand the vision for this important project, enabling us to accommodate residents' diverse needs and regenerate the formerly derelict site into a vibrant community development."

Wates Residential's work with Mansfield District Council has also included a £3m social housing development to create 17 senior living bungalows at Flint Avenue in Forest Town.

Karl Tupling, General Manager for the Midlands for the Homes and Communities Agency (HCA), added:

"The HCA is really pleased to be helping to bring this important local site back into use. Redeveloping the former General Hospital site will revitalise this part of the town as well as helping older people in Mansfield to have a home of their own that is tailored to suit their needs."

Apart from providing housing, the project will also support local people by organising employment and training opportunities. People interested in a career in construction can contact the council's Employment and Skills adviser Ella O'Connor on 01623 463327, who is working with Wates Residential, the building partner, to make sure local people benefit from the scheme.

The scheme began on site in August 2016 and is due to be completed in early 2018. The project is part of Mansfield District Council's Local Plan to deliver new homes, employment, commercial and community facilities.

Council Tax – Warsop Parish Council Precept

By now council tax demands will be issued by Mansfield District Council showing various increases made by Nottinghamshire County Council, The Police and Warsop Parish Council.

The District Council will proudly herald a nil % increase to your rates, however Warsop Parish Council are having to increase its own precept by an alarming 15.8%. Truth is figures can always tell different stories.

Warsop Parish Council runs a balanced budget on £123,840 with an annual precept of £91,792. This precept of £91,792 includes a grant of £16,731 from MDC who had agreed to make this payment until 2019.

The Mayor and her cabinet chose to cancel this grant with immediate effect to save them £16,731. This figure is a small amount to a council that chooses to invest over £20 million on hotels and other properties in Scotland and London. To the Parish Council it represents a loss of 18.2% of our budget.

To maintain our level of service, the Parish Council voted to increase our precept by £4.00 per annum on Band D properties (or 7.5 pence per week). That gives us a reduced precept of £89,476 so we actually face an overall reduction on last year's precept of 2.5%.

With an increasing disillusionment with Mansfield District Council's provision of services in our part of the District, we expect our Parish Council to explore ways of taking on more services to meet with your aspirations but only with a fair funding package from your District Council – after all why should we in Warsop pay more for services that residents of Woodhouse, Forest Town and Pleasley automatically get!

Andy Wetton - Chairman, Warsop Parish Council

Letter to the Editor...

Dear Editor,

It appears that this year the Warsop Parish Council precept (WPC's portion of the council tax) will have to be increased by quite a substantial percentage, as opposed to zero increases in previous years.

Although I find this unfortunate, I was at the Parish Council meeting on Monday 20th February where this was discussed and realise that there was no other option available to the council.

It was a long discussion and other options were discussed at length but none of them, in my opinion, were financially viable.

One of the main reasons is that Mansfield District Council are, this year, refusing to refund Warsop approximately £17,000 due to them under the governments rate relief scheme, instead, keeping it for their own coffers.

This on top of past decisions like, taking over the Town Hall or losing it, having to buy the library car park or losing it, having to finance the Citizen's Advice Bureau in Warsop or losing it and the maintainance of the church yard being forced on them. These on top of many other examples which now include the possible loss of the Sports Centre.

On top of the above, several local community groups and events are also supported such as the annual carnival and the youth club.

Our local councillors are finding it increasingly difficult to negotiate services for Warsop due to the intransigent attitude of MDC portfolio holders and the Mayor to our needs.

Although I am not always in agreement with decisions made by our councillor's, but as I've said above, I fully support them on this one and ask other members of the public to do the same. There really was no other option.

Try not to think of the very large percentage figure but look at it as only £4 per year or 8p per week extra, this I personally think is a small price to pay for the extra services we recieve and the effort put in by our VOLUNTEER parish councillors.

One way to try and redress the unfair and immoral decisions, made by the MDC cabinet, about Warsop's services is to think where you put your X on the next District and Mayoral elections.

Yours sincerely

Eric Hill

Feel Well This Spring

Mansfield Museum is launching its first Health and Wellbeing Festival in Mansfield at the end of March.

From 25 March to 8 April, visitors can take part in workshops, see displays, listen to talks and have a go at a wide variety of activities that have an impact on physical and mental wellbeing. The launch day begins at 10am with the Heaven at Home holistic taster session at the museum and 'The Big Picture Tour' at Arena Church, followed by a guided walk around Quarry Lane Nature Reserve at 2pm.

The museum's ambitious project is designed to encourage the local community to come together to take the initial step to managing and improving health.

Over the years, the museum has worked closely with many different local groups to help and support each other across a whole range of health concerns. The Health and Wellbeing Festival is now bringing together many of these groups, along with many others, to put on more than 70 free events across seven sites during the two week period.

Groups include Nottinghamshire Fire Service, Everyone Health, Mansfield District Leisure Trust, Stroke Association, My Sight and Mind, amongst others. Their common goal is to raise awareness about living a healthy lifestyle and how both physical and mental wellbeing can lead to a happier you.

The activities and workshops offer visitors the opportunity to learn more about physical activity, diet, and alternative therapies, whilst also offering advice along with the chance to channel creativity. Activities include:

- Yoga
- Guided walks
- Interval sessions
- Blood pressure testing
- Pregnancy relaxation
- Singing
- Hands on healing
- Lifestyle, weight loss and nutrition talks
- Amateur dramatics performances
- Wheelchair basketball
- Drama led story telling

In addition to these activities Macmillan Cancer Support are providing an impressive walk through display involving an inflatable colon to inform people about the stages of bowel cancer and other diseases in the large intestine.

Portfolio Holder for Cultural Services, Town and District Centres, Cllr David Smith said:

"The Health and Wellbeing Festival is a great opportunity for people of all ages and abilities to take their first steps to living a healthier, happier life.

"This is a fantastic initiative brought to the town by Mansfield Museum and their supporting partners, and best of all it's free to take part.

"We hope the public will get behind the event and show their support by visiting the museum and making the most of the free help and guidance."

More details including a timetable of events can be found on the museum's website at www.mansfield.gov.uk/museum.

Alternatively you can contact Jodie Henshaw at the museum by emailing jhenshaw@mansfield.gov.uk or calling 01623 463088.

Nominate Volunteer Heroes for Award

Do you know an unsung community hero, group or business which deserves recognition for their voluntary work?

Nominations are now open for the annual Mansfield Volunteer Awards and people have until Friday 28 April to put a group, individual or business forward.

The winners will be announced at an award ceremony on Thursday 8 June at the John Fretwell Sporting Complex in Warsop.

Executive Mayor of Mansfield Kate Allsop said: "Volunteers do an enormous amount of important work in improving the quality of life for residents and play a vital role making communities cohesive, so this is an excellent way to show how much we appreciate them."

For more information or for a nomination form, contact Mansfield CVS on 01623 651 177. To make a nomination online, visit www.mansfield.gov.uk/volunteering.

The awards are supported by Mansfield District Council, Mansfield Community & Voluntary Service and Nottinghamshire County Council.

There are seven categories, these are:

- Young Person's Award
a young person under 25 volunteering in the community
- Vaughan Thomas Memorial Award
for any community group involved in community action
- Emily Dawes Memorial Award
for a paid worker in the voluntary sector who has gone beyond the call of duty
- Andrew Wallace Memorial Award
for an individual volunteering in the community
- Margaret Wilson Memorial Award
for any volunteer who provided exceptional support to a charity
- Outstanding Volunteer of the Year Award
exceptional or sustained actions
- Business in the Community Award
a business who has given voluntary time to support the voluntary sector

Council Scheme to Free up Hospital Beds Shortlisted for Award

A Mansfield District Council housing scheme, which has helped reduce "bed blocking" in the area and saved the NHS more than £1m a year, has been shortlisted for a prestigious national award.

The Better Together – ASSIST Hospital Discharge Scheme has been named in the top four of the Shared Learning Awards 2017 run by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE).

The scheme is a collaboration of teams from the district council, Nottinghamshire County Council, Sherwood Forest Hospitals National Health Service Foundation Trust and the Mid Nottinghamshire Clinical Commissioning Group (CCG).

It involves county council social workers at King's Mill Hospital in Sutton-in-Ashfield identifying patients with a housing or social need and working with Mansfield District Council housing department to find solutions that enable these patients to leave hospital.

Since its inception in October 2014 up to January 2017, it has helped 2,174 patients.

The project was described by NICE as "particularly impressive" among 60 other entries of an "extremely high" standard.

It is now up against three other entries in the final at the NICE Annual Conference, in Liverpool on 19 May, when the council will give a presentation about its work. The winner will be chosen by the audience.

The ASSIST (Advocacy, Sustainment, Supporting Independence, Safeguarding Team) hospital discharge project has been roundly praised since it was launched.

Last year it made the finals of the health and social care category of the Local Government Chronicle awards. It was also shortlisted for the Association for Public Service Excellence Annual Service Awards in 2015 in the Best Health and Wellbeing Initiative category.

A study by Nottingham Trent University and Mansfield and Ashfield CCG found clear evidence that the scheme saves the NHS £1.371m annually by freeing up beds.

The cost of the scheme at that time of the study was put at £233,520 a year, paid for by the Mid Nottinghamshire CCG. However a council review of how the scheme operates is now putting the annual cost of it at £149,500.

The scheme saved an average of 4.5 bed days per patient helped and this represented a saving of £936 per patient.

Portfolio Holder for Housing Cllr Barry Answer said: "Reaching the final of the NICE awards means this scheme is rightly being recognised as nationally significant. If it is saving over a million a year in only one area, just think what could be saved to the NHS if it went UK-wide and other areas followed our best practice."

Bed blocking is a major national issue and an increasingly costly problem for hospitals and NHS as a whole. In May 2016, the National Audit Office published a report which indicated that the number of days in hospitals when beds were occupied by patients, who should have been discharged, had increased by 31% over the past two years to 1.15 million days.

Birklands Primary School Moves out of 'Special Measures' Following Positive Ofsted Inspection

Birklands Primary School is delighted to announce that following an Ofsted inspection on 28 February and 1 March, the school has been awarded a 'Good' rating after undergoing 'rapid development over the last two years'

Staff at the school, along with the Nova Education Trust, who became education sponsors of Birklands Primary following the previous Ofsted inspection, have worked incredibly hard to turn around the fortunes of the school. Changes throughout all aspects of education at the Market Warsop based school have been implemented with determination and this inspection is testament to that.

Head of School, Celia Smith commented: "I am so very proud of everyone. We've managed to get to this through sheer hard work and dedication from staff and through resilience and perseverance from the children."

"Now we have been rated good, we would like to personalise the curriculum and become more innovative, providing a more creative approach in the way we deliver it. We're all excited about continuing the journey of taking the school onwards and upwards."

Helen Duffy, Executive Head Teacher said: "This is fantastic news for the students and staff at Birklands Primary School and a real reward for all their hard work."

Headline Strengths

- Effective intervention by the Nova Education Trust (formally the Torch Academy Gateway Trust) has reversed the fortunes and reputation of the school. The school has undergone rapid improvement over the last two years.
- The head of school has a good understanding of effective teaching and learning and this is fuelling her ambitions for the school, its pupils and the wider community.
- The pupils have very positive attitudes towards their learning. They take their lead from the adults in school, who are very good role models.
- Pupils' outcomes in key stages 1 and 2 improved in 2016. Current assessment information shows a picture of improving outcomes in most year groups.

Leadership and Management

- The head of school has secured the trust and respect of parents and staff. She is ambitious for the personal and academic achievement of each pupil, with a very clear vision of what the school needs to do to improve further.
- Leaders have invested heavily in the training and professional development of teachers and teaching assistants. This has ensured that staff apply policies and practices consistently. It has played an important role in securing improved pupils' behaviour and raising standards in all year groups.
- Subject leaders, including the special needs coordinator, are an emerging strength of the school.

Quality of Teaching and Learning

- Teachers professional knowledge is strong, this results in a learning environment that is brimming with enthusiasm and staff who are highly motivated to drive further improvement.
- The school's curriculum offers a wide range of opportunities for pupils to learn and develop new skills. The curriculum is particularly effective at securing good levels of spiritual, moral, social and cultural knowledge and understanding. Consequently, pupils are increasingly well prepared to take their place in modern Britain.

- The teachers and teaching assistants share the leaders' high aspirations for every pupil. Relationships with pupils are very strong and the staff's desire for each pupil to succeed is tangible.
- Pupils' outcomes in mathematics have improved substantially over the past two years as a result of improved teaching and learning. The teachers plan lessons that are well structured and that build on pupils' prior learning.
- The teachers plan lessons that identify the different abilities and backgrounds of pupils. They generally deploy teaching assistants and additional adults well, particularly to support the learning of the less able pupils and pupils who have special educational needs and/or disabilities.
- The children in the early years make a very good start to their education. Teachers establish routines that enable children to settle quickly into their learning. As a result, children are confident, inquisitive learners who are eager to explore new ideas and challenges.

Behaviour

- Pupils conduct themselves with restraint and respect for each other at different times of the school day. They value the good behaviour of their fellow pupils and know that it is helping their learning in lessons.
- Respect for self and for others, regardless of background, is sewn through the fabric of the school. This equips pupils very well for their citizenship in modern Britain.
- Parents and pupils agree that incidents of bullying are rare and that the school is a safe place to learn.

Have Your Say on Parliamentary Boundary Plans

The Boundary Commission for England (BCE) is again inviting people to view and comment on its proposals for new parliamentary constituency boundaries.

A 12-week public consultation was held last year and the Commission has published the representations it received. People now have until Monday 27 March 2017 to comment on these representations.

All the views so far expressed have been published on its website at www.bce2018.org.uk, where people can use an interactive mapping system to locate comments geographically and add their own comments.

The BCE has the task of periodically reviewing the boundaries of all the parliamentary constituencies in England.

Its current review of boundaries is on the basis of rules set by Parliament in 2011 which require that every constituency – apart from two specified exceptions – must have an electorate that is between 71,031 and 78,507.

The proposals must also consider the following guidelines:

- To use local government wards as the building blocks for proposed constituencies
- To retain existing constituencies where possible
- To have regard to geographic factors.

The result of the review is likely to see a reduction in the number of constituencies in England from 533 to 501. The East Midlands is set to see a reduction of two constituencies. The proposal for the Mansfield constituency is for it to remain unchanged.

The Commission will make its recommendations for new Parliamentary boundaries to Parliament in September 2018.

Returning Officer for Mansfield, Bev Smith said: "No changes for Mansfield are proposed but people can still comment on the proposals to help the BCE shape the new constituencies."

Warsop's wacky walkers - group shot of members before the walk

Just B-EAT it!

Over 725,000 men and women in the UK are affected by eating disorders.

Inner Wheel Association President Zena Cole has chosen BEAT for our Association Charity this year. One of her charity events was to ask that clubs across the UK all take part in a walk, wearing silly socks to raise awareness and funds for this worthy charity. The B-eat website was funded by the Amy Winehouse Foundation.

Eating disorders are a range of conditions that can affect someone physically, psychologically and socially. They are serious mental illnesses and yes, they do include anorexia, bulimia as we all probably know; but this serious mental illness also includes Binge Eating Disorder (BED), emotional overeating, Eating Disorder Not Otherwise Specified (EDNOS) and disordered eating/eating problems.

Adorned with our silly socks, accompanied by some husbands and dogs, suitably tethered Warsop Inner Wheel members set off on Saturday 04 March to walk 5 miles around the beautiful Clumber Park lake. This walk was a total group effort with all ages and fitness abilities taking part. That also includes some of the dogs who came with us too. The group naturally settled in to small groups to accommodate their walking style and speed preferences. With silly socks a blur, the more energetic surged ahead. Little did we realise it was to grab a coffee half way around. But we'll let them off, they've earned it. Also thirsty were Hilary and Steve's chocolate labs, Elena and Marley who couldn't help but cool off at the first opportunity.

Plenty of people were asking what we were doing. Not because we were walking the lake edge, but because of our silly socks. Great idea Zena, it really did draw some attention and you can see why! Superwoman President Gloria Humphrey, virtually flew round, with the aid of her super socks. We couldn't have wished for a better day after the dreadful weather on Friday. We had crisp winds, bright skies and beautiful scenery to help us around.

We'd made it around the lake in good time before heading off for a lunch being prepared for us by Sue's husband Rob, and ably assisted by Christine's husband John and Anne's husband Phil.

Meeting up half way around with members

Members Marjorie Zillwood, Ann Holland and Anne Benson.

Gloria Humphrey gave thanks to Rob Pasierb

Sue and Rob Pasierb, as always were the perfect hosts, providing a welcome to all the weary walkers. A cheeky glass of sparkle was waiting for us on arrival, before we were given the choice of homemade seafood paella, cottage pie or turkey tart; all with roasted veg. Followed by apple tart, rhubarb crumble and custard, or fruit salad.

These events are made very special by our members pulling together to demonstrate our Club's values; promote true friendship, fostering international understanding and encouraging the ideals of personal service. President Gloria gave thanks on behalf of the members to Rob for his superb cooking and for donating £100 from the meal surplus towards the B-eat charity. Every member walking donated £5 per head with gift aid which will be totalled and sent on to the Association to make a total donation at the end of this presidential year in June.

EDWINSTOWE & THE DUKERIES LIONS CLUB

Lions Club Presentation Evening

On Thursday 23rd February 2017 Edwinstowe and the Dukeries Lions Club held a presentation evening at South Forest Leisure Centre, Edwinstowe.

During the evening, several Certificates of Appreciation were awarded to members of the public who had assisted the Lions with their fundraising efforts during the last twelve months.

Lion President, Steve Scall, then presented cheques to many deserving local and national causes.

These included:

- Don Sharpe representing Hearing Dogs for Deaf People who attended with his dog Mr. Mitchell and who gave a short talk about his experience with the charity
- The Dukeries Woodturning Society who donated several hand turned wooden items which were then auctioned, with the proceeds going to the Lions Club Benevolent fund for onward distribution to good causes
- Rainworth Rangers Football Club for the purchase of "hoodies" with the club logo for the use of junior and disabled teams
- The Lynds Close Luncheon Club, Edwinstowe who provide a weekly get together and subsidised lunch for local pensioners.

The Lions Grand Fashion Show

Edwinstowe and the Dukeries Lions Club held their first Grand Fashion Show at the South Forest Leisure Complex on Friday 3rd March 2017.

262 tickets were sold and the people attending were treated to a glass of wine or a soft drink before being addressed by Mark Spencer, the MP for Sherwood, who spoke about who the Lions are and what they do in the local community including help towards Hearing Dogs for the Deaf. He then introduced Don Sharpe and his hearing dog, Mr. Mitchell.

The fashion show then took place, with the models coming from Lions and friends, who paraded a variety of clothes from the major high street stores. These were all supplied by SOS Fashions of Nottingham.

After the parade, people were allowed to purchase any of the clothes modelled and indeed lots that weren't shown!

The evening generated a profit of £1164.76p, including a raffle which raised £478, for local and national good causes.

Meden Vale The Future

Registered Charity
No. 1115359

The 37th meeting of Meden Vale the Future was held at the Village Hall on Tuesday 7 February 2017. 5 members of the Committee were present and 1 local Councillor. 4 apologies were received.

The Chairman reported that a cheque had been received from the Mansfield Building Society, which will be used to replace the carpet in the main room, this to be fitted as soon as possible. In addition, several minor repairs, including lights in the gents toilets and main room plus new locks for the perimeter gates had been actioned.

It was agreed that the next project would be to overhaul the heating system, a local plumber will be contacted to supply a quote for this work. It was reported that the Public Liability insurance had been renewed. An enquiry from Derby and Notts Pre-School Alliance had been received regarding renting the Village Hall for five days a week to provide nursery facilities for local children.

It was agreed by the Committee that this was a good idea and provided all costs were covered, it would proceed. It was also agreed that the charge for future adult hire parties would be increased to £40 forthwith, children's parties would remain at £20.

It was reported that Spawforths, designers for Harworth Estates, were preparing plans for the pit wheels which will be sited at the entrance to the Business Park. The designs for the smaller wheels to be sited at the entrances to the new and old villages were being progressed by the Mansfield District Council Survey Department. The next Welbeck Colliery the Future meeting is scheduled for Wednesday 22 March 2017.

The next round of funding from Big Warsop is now open, the Playscheme was urged to apply.

The local Councillor advised that there was to be a meeting regarding the future re-development of Melville Court and several options were to be presented for discussion.

The up to date Accounts were not available for tonight's meeting however, the Chairman understood that the finances were satisfactory.

Next meeting will be on Tuesday 4 April 2017 at 7.30pm. All welcome.

Please contact the Secretary Kay Walker on 01623 844282 for further information.

Two Fined for Fly-tipping Offence

Two Mansfield men have each been ordered by magistrates to pay £170 in costs for an offence of fly-tipping.

This followed a resident reporting that a mattress had been thrown onto land at the back of properties on Cumberland Drive from a van. Checks of the vehicle showed the registered keeper to be Christopher Cassidy.

Christopher Cassidy of Langham Place, Mansfield, and Michael Scully of Noel Street, Mansfield, both admitted dumping the mattress but denied the fly-tipping charges, claiming that the mattress had been blocking the road. They decided to move it and put it in their van before taking it around to the back of the houses and leaving it there. Both men accepted that they had not informed the council of their actions, and said that a passer-by had told them that he would report the mattress to the council, although there is no record of this.

After receiving a letter from the council, the defendants returned to collect the mattress and dispose of it correctly.

The magistrates accepted the men's account that they had found the mattress in the road, but they did not accept that the men needed to put it in their van and found them guilty of fly-tipping. The magistrates considered that the defendants were misguided and imposed a conditional discharge for 12 months, with a costs order of £150 each and victim surcharge of £20 each.

Cllr Mick Barton, Portfolio Holder for Public protection said: "This case demonstrates that everyone has a responsibility to dispose of waste properly and not simply dump items that they may come across. It is still fly-tipping, which is a significant problem across Mansfield district and we will always seek to take legal action wherever possible."

Trio Charged for Illegal Waste Disposal

Three people were taken to court by Mansfield District Council for offences relating to the incorrect disposal of waste.

Waste was found on Oakfield Lane, Mansfield on 1 April 2016 that contained details relating to Mia Pearce from Sutton in Ashfield. She confirmed she had given the waste to her brother Leyton Leavey, also from Sutton in Ashfield.

Mia Pearce failed in her household duty of care under section 34 of the Environmental Protection Act 1990 as she did not check that her brother had a waste carriers licence.

Leyton Leavey admitted to selling a van full of the waste, which he had collected from his sister, to Jake Cullington. The siblings both appeared at Mansfield Magistrates Court on 19 January 2017 when they entered guilty pleas and were ordered to pay £245 each in fines, legal costs and compensation.

Jake Cullington who purchased the van later fly tipped the waste at the location it was found and after appearing in court on 9 February 2017, pleaded guilty to the charge of fly tipping.

The district judge imposed an eight week community order with an eight week curfew on Mr Cullington between the hours of 8pm and 8am. He was also ordered to pay £100 towards the legal costs and £40 compensation.

Cllr Mick Barton, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection, said: "It is the responsibility of each individual to ensure that their waste is disposed of according to the law. This means if you use a waste disposal company or any individual to dispose of your waste, it is down to you to check that they are licensed."

"This is a good outcome for the council and shows that we do not tolerate the irresponsible disposal of waste in our district."

Judge Bans Shopkeeper From Running Food Business

A Mansfield shopkeeper has been banned indefinitely from managing any food business after being found to be selling 32 items, including meat and cheese, past their use-by date.

Elita Zvingule, 54, of Newgate Lane Mansfield, appeared at Nottingham Crown Court on 23 February 2017 after being committed there by Mansfield Magistrates on 6 February 2017 because they felt their sentencing powers were insufficient. Zvingule faced sentencing in relation to one conviction after she admitted an offence of being a food operator and placing food on the market that was unsafe, contrary to Article 14(1) of Regulation 178/2002 and regulation 19(1) and (2) of the Food Safety and Hygiene (England) regulations 2013. The court was told that Mansfield District Council Environmental Health Officers carried out an inspection at Saulite at 27 Wood Street, Mansfield, on 11 January 2016 and found 32 items of perishable food, such as meat and cheese, past their use-by date and for sale at a reduced price.

Zvingule accepted marking those items down in price, stating that she had not been as busy during the Christmas period as expected, the court heard.

She had previously received a caution for selling products past their use-by date at different premises in 2012, and in 2013, at another premises, Zvingule had been served with a hygiene improvement notice when further items were found to be on sale past their use-by date, said the prosecutor for Mansfield District Council, Emma Goodall.

Zvingule was convicted on 7 January 2016 for distributing illicit cigarettes and handed a jail sentence of eight weeks, suspended for 12 months.

After hearing the evidence, His Honour Judge John Burgess said Zvingule did not just have a slack attitude, but had been reckless, having been warned twice about selling products past the use-by date.

Sentencing her to a 12-month Community Order with a requirement that she complete 100 hours of unpaid work, the Judge said that he could see how people may believe that she should be jailed.

He also imposed on her a Hygiene Prevention Order, which prevents Zvingule from being involved in the management of any food business for a minimum of six months and until the order is lifted by court.

In addition, he fined her £20 for breaching her suspended sentence, and ordered her to pay the prosecution costs of £2,739.57 as well as a statutory surcharge of £85.

After the case, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection Cllr Mick Barton said: "We will not tolerate any food outlet ignoring food hygiene rules and regulations and we use all our powers and legal enforcement to ensure businesses keep to the guidelines. Our job is the public's safety at all times."

Mansfield and Other Six Notts Districts AWARDED £660,000 to Support Victims of Domestic Abuse

Mansfield District Council has been awarded a share of £660,000 to support victims of domestic abuse and violence who have complex needs such as mental ill health or alcohol and substance issues.

The £661,946.50 Government funding will be used to maintain and increase spaces at refuges across Nottinghamshire, and increase specialist support services for women and children fleeing harm. The support will be tailored to the needs of specific groups, including those who are marginalised for any reason or from different ethnic minority backgrounds.

Partners including the district councils, Nottinghamshire Women's Aid, Women's Aid Integrated Services (WAIS) and the county council, will work together across all areas to make sure that those who need help and support can get it, wherever they are. The funding means that 159 bed spaces will be available in women's refuges across the county at any given time.

The funding will be used to support around 646 victims of domestic abuse and violence and will provide:

- 60 bed spaces that would otherwise close - out of a total of 159
- 2 additional bed spaces which will benefit victims nationally
- Increased specialist support for marginalised victims
- Increased specialist support for women and children with additional complex needs
- Increased hours of support available to victims
- Improved assistance to women by providing better access to move-on accommodation.

Bev Smith, chair of the Nottinghamshire Domestic Violence and Sexual Abuse strategy group said:

"This funding provides an excellent opportunity for partners to work jointly to support survivors of domestic abuse and violence by ensuring they get the right support whenever they need it. Working across boundaries will make it easier for people to access the appropriate help, wherever they are in the county."

"So often domestic abuse and violence is hidden from view and those suffering can feel that there's no support or nowhere to go. Working together with our partners means that we can extend our reach and target those with complex needs, who require specialist support or treatment. Tackling this form of abuse will help survivors to move forward and rebuild their lives."

Val Lunn, Chief Executive Officer for Women's Aid Integrated Services said:

"We're delighted about the award for refuges which means that women and children will have somewhere safe to go and ultimately that lives will be saved. Nottinghamshire received one of highest awards in the country which is a testament to the excellent partnerships between the district authorities and specialist domestic abuse providers like ourselves, Midlands Women's Aid, Newark Women's Aid and Notts Women's Aid"

Mandy Green Head of Services Nottinghamshire Women's Aid said:

"This is excellent news for Nottinghamshire and congratulations to all the partners who have worked together on this bid in particular David Jayne and Lucy Binch. This funding will ensure that refuge provision continues to be available for women with or without children who are fleeing domestic abuse, with specialist support provided by Nottinghamshire Women's Aid, Midlands Women's Aid, Newark Women's aid and Women's aid integrated services."

The funding will be available for two years, and is part of a £20 million government fund to support victims of domestic abuse across the country.

Council Commitment to Tackling Domestic Abuse Recognised

Mansfield District Council has retained its White Ribbon status in recognition of its efforts to tackle domestic abuse.

The council was first awarded the White Ribbon in February 2013. In order to get re-accreditation, it had to demonstrate its continued commitment to raising public awareness of the White Ribbon campaign and its aim to eradicate domestic violence.

Over the past year initiatives have included highlighting the Domestic Violence Disclosure Scheme, otherwise known as Clare's Law. This allows anyone who may be worried about a person's behaviour, within a domestic abuse context, to request information from the police about their past.

If a request is made, the police will investigate the concerns and decide whether or not to disclose information and with whom to share any information they may have.

The Clare's Law scheme is named after Clare Wood who was murdered in 2009 by a former boyfriend. Since it was launched three years ago, thousands of disclosures have been made nationwide including 263 since 2012 in Nottinghamshire from a total of 620 requests.

Cllr Mick Barton, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection, said:

"The White Ribbon campaign is about challenging attitudes and beliefs to help deter perpetrators from continuing with their abusive behaviour."

"If more people know about the Clare's Law scheme, it may stop some of abuse problems sooner and help people who are living in an abusive relationship to access support."

"The council remains totally committed to tackling domestic abuse because, unfortunately, this district has one of the highest rates of domestic abuse in Nottinghamshire. Last year there were over 800 reports to police."

Other White Ribbon awareness raising events held by the council throughout the year included:

- Collecting shoe boxes filled with items which someone fleeing into refuge to escape domestic abuse would need, such as toiletries and underwear.
- Distributing 'goodie bags' with tea bags and biscuits along with leaflets about domestic abuse and local services. There were handed out at Mansfield Museum and on a stand at Mansfield Market. Some were also given to Nottinghamshire Women's Aid to distribute to their service users.
- Christmas craft activities for children at Mansfield Museum.
- Providing information points in Mansfield town centre about services available to support victims of abuse.
- Marking White Ribbon Day which is held each year on 25th November, the International Day for the Elimination of Violence Against Women.

The White Ribbon re-accreditation comes hot on the heels of Mansfield District Council being awarded a share of £662,000 to support Nottinghamshire victims of domestic abuse and violence who have complex needs such as mental ill health or alcohol and substance issues.

The Government funding will be used to maintain and increase spaces at refuges across the county, and increase specialist support services for women and children fleeing harm. The support will be tailored to the needs of specific groups, including those who are marginalised for any reason, or are from different ethnic minority backgrounds.

The funding will be available for two years, and is part of a £20 million Government fund to support victims of domestic abuse across the country.

COMPANY FINED for Health & Safety Offence

Mansfield business Pacha Lounge Ltd has been ordered to pay more than £6,000 for a health and safety offence after dead pigeons and bird droppings were found in its side yard.

At Mansfield Magistrates' Court on 2 March 2017, the company admitted failing to comply with an Improvement Notice served under the Health and Safety At Work etc Act 1974.

It was fined £5,000 by the court on 8 March 2017 and ordered to pay a victim surcharge of £170 plus costs of £1,062. The Magistrates also ordered Pacha Lounge Ltd to complete the work required by the Improvement Notice by 6 April 2017.

Mansfield District Council prosecuted the company after it failed to comply with a Health and Safety Improvement Notice, requiring the business to clean its side yard and remove both live and dead pigeons in order to reduce the risk of infection to employees and others who entered the yard.

The court was told that council Environmental Health Officers visited Pacha Lounge after receiving a complaint and found damaged bird proofing at the side of the premises in Market Place, dead pigeons on the yard floor and large amounts of bird droppings on the yard floor and on items stored in the yard.

Mr Xhetan Bushi, a director of the company, was advised that work was required to improve the yard but this was not carried out within a reasonable time so the council then issued an Improvement Notice. The council prosecuted after the company failed to act on the Improvement Notice.

After the case, Portfolio Holder for Public Protection Cllr Mick Barton said:

"Companies do have a responsibility for health and safety, and the council will act, where necessary, to ensure that companies meet that obligation."

The 4.30 Thing

Ever wonder what happens in our beautiful church of St Peter & St Paul, apart from weddings and funerals?

We have many services both old and new, sung and said. BUT the Sunday 4.30 thing is very new and might just be the right thing for you.

We start with coffee/tea and a chat around the table. Sometime there's cake if anyone has been baking. We then move into some music time (bring your instrument if you play) and hear a story from the Bible. This gives us direction for our activity, which can range from origami to painting and modelling while we talk together about the story we have heard and what it tells us about life today.

Of course sometimes just sitting is good – painting is not compulsory. We then have more music and a time of quiet reflection and prayer. Importantly, you are at the centre of this Act of Worship and influence the way it develops. We get to talk to each other.

Who are we? Well we are a small group who range from 2yrs old to 60+ (we don't ask people their actual age). We are led by Revd Jennie Sharpe and we would welcome you to join with us at 4.30.

If you would like to know more or feel a bit shy about just turning up call Jennie on 01623 629614 or email revdjenniesharpe@gmail.com

THE ROYAL BRITISH LEGION

The Legions Break Centre in Bridlington, Alderson House

Branch members have been asked to consider trips for the forthcoming year, with the National Memorial Arboretum, Bridlington and a River Trent boat trip being proposed.

Our branch supports the Legions Break Centre in Bridlington, Alderson House. On the seafront, Alderson House allows guests to relax within a safe, comfortable, friendly environment whilst enjoying the break they deserve. Military families can also make use of the facilities during family week when the whole family can stay.

Locally, The Royal British Legion are taking part in a pilot project working with NEA (National Energy Action)(http://www.nea.org.uk/) to support our beneficiaries who are suffering from Fuel Poverty. NEA is a Charity that works across England, Wales and Northern Ireland, to ensure that everyone can afford to live in a warm, dry home. (A beneficiary is anyone who has drawn 7 days pay in the British Military, their partner and dependent children.)

Drop-in

The April Drop-in will be on the 7th April at Warsop Town Hall, 10 am to 12 noon. (1st Friday of every month)

Next meeting

Our next meeting is on the 10th April at 7.30 pm. Ex-Servicemen's Club, Carr Lane. Anyone is welcome to attend our meetings and potential members do not have to be serving or ex-serving to join. (see advert below)

THINGS TO DO TODAY:

- 1) Load the death deck with heavy metal rock 'n roll
- 2) Destroy the witch
- 3) Save the world

Mutha's Ruin is a new East Midlands based metal covers band and would like like-minded people to rise up, join the rebellion, and help destroy the witch Mother Windell!!

They are playing their debut show at The Black Market in Warsop on Saturday 8th April 2017, with support coming from Mansfield band Identity Crisis and Nottingham band Heaven To Stone (entry £5 on the door).

What we at Mutha's Ruin are trying to do is to take the whole covers band thing and give it a bit of a shake up. There are many great covers bands of all musical types out there, so you have to come up with something that stands you apart, something that people will remember and hopefully make them want to come back for more.

I personally have been in many covers and tribute bands over the last 30 years, but what frustrated me most of all was the reluctance to do something a little different, it was always the same look playing the same songs. It got to the point where you could swap the set lists around of two or three different covers bands and they wouldn't realise it!!

So firstly, we made a point of playing songs that not many, if any (other than tributes to said bands) covers bands do. So no Sweet Child Of Mine or Enter Sandman for us (in fact the only time I want to hear those played is if I actually go to see G'n R or Metallica), you know, Motorhead just didn't release the Ace Of Spades!!

Secondly was the look, we wanted to get away from the t-shirt and jeans look (which in itself is OK) and use our imaginations more, so have gone for the look we have which also ties in nicely with our story line which you can read in full on our facebook page at <http://www.facebook.com/muthasruin>.

It would be really great if people could come to our shows dressed the part too, for example as their favourite character from the story, and help turn what would be just another gig down your local to an event!! Our look is based around Heavy Metal meets Steampunk meets Mad Max, so your only limitation with it is your imagination!!

Thirdly, is the storyline as I mentioned before. In a nut shell, the human race has almost wiped itself out (as all good sci-fi stories have us!!) and is on the brink of extinction, when a mysterious woman named Mother Windell drags us back from the edge and gets us back on our feet again. However, everything isn't what it seems and her intentions are far more darker than saving the world.

As with any show, the more support we get, then the bigger the shows and more elaborate the costumes will become, the band's a living breathing entity. We have a lot of ideas and avenues that we want to explore, as well as merchandise that will be available soon, this is only phase one!!

There are more live dates in the pipeline for around the East Midlands and the rest of the country, that just need the t's crossing and the i's dotting, and up to date information can be found by joining our facebook page.

Adrian, Lead Guitarist of Mutha's Ruin.

Forestry Commission

Sherwood
Pines Adventure

THE VIKINGS ARE COMING!

Saturday & Sunday 22nd & 23rd April 2017
10am-4pm. FREE Admission.

The Friends of Thynghowe invite you to a Viking Spring Thing at Sherwood Pines Forest Park over the weekend on 22nd and 23rd April.

The brilliant re-enactors of Regia Anglorum will be taking us back 1000 years to the time when Danish Vikings settled in Sherwood Forest. They will relive the conflicts and also the skills needed for everyday life in Sherwood. Throughout each day, warriors will battle in the arena alongside demonstrations of a wide range of crafts in the living history camp.

Thynghowe is a Viking Age site on the borders of Warsop, Buddby and Edwinstowe where 'Thing' assemblies would have been held. The Spring Thing is organised by the Forestry Commission and Regia Anglorum alongside The Friends of Thynghowe.

The Spring Thing runs between 10am and 4pm on both Saturday and Sunday.
This is a FREE event although Forestry Commission Parking charges will apply:
£2 for the 1st hour, £4 up to 2 hours or £6 all day.

The Friends of Thynghowe
Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

Two major events in The Friends of Thynghowe's calendar take place in April before things quieten down as the Forest becomes too overgrown for our investigations and we allow birds to nest undisturbed by archaeological activities!

Viking Spring Thing - 22nd and 23rd April 2017

Our weekend of the Viking Spring Thing re-enactment event at Sherwood Pines is a way of sharing the story of the Sherwood Vikings without attracting damaging footfall to the vulnerable site of Thynghowe.

The Spring Thing is a great family event and can be combined with a visit to the other attractions in the woodlands.

It's not just about violent warriors as the event also gives fascinating insights into the skills needed in everyday life during the period a thousand years ago when Danes settled in this area.

The arena battles and living history camp will run between 10am and 4pm each day.

Walk to Thynghowe - 29th April 2017

On the last Saturday of the month we will hold our annual guided walk to Thynghowe. We will visit sites of interest along the way to Thynghowe before reviving the Viking practice of assembling on the slopes of the hill.

As public access to Thynghowe is restricted and much of the archaeology of the area is hidden, this is an ideal opportunity to find out about this special site.

We will meet at the Warsop Windmill entrance to the woodlands at 10am and we should have completed the 3 mile walk by 2pm.

Unfortunately we will not be able to revive the 'ancient custom' of distributing free bread, cheese and ale to participants this year!

If you want to join us please check fotevents.wordpress.com for any late changes.

You can find out about our activities from our website and Facebook page and you can email us on thynghowe@warsopweb.co.uk or contact us by phone on 846281.

The Vikings of Sherwood project is supported by the National Lottery through the Heritage Lottery Fund.

DUKERIES Singers

Jan Towler
Your Local Choir

The Choir was recently invited to join with members of other choirs at a full day of singing under the direction of the composer John Rutter.

John Rutter has written a vast amount of music for choirs and his work is particularly heard at Christmas time for which he has written some beautiful songs and carols.

Six ladies took up the challenge and toddled off to Southwell with our packed lunches and throat lozenges to join with 310 other voices in what was an exhilarating and joyous experience. To sing with so many others was a pleasure but to have so many men singing was amazing. Their lovely harmonies gave such a depth and richness of sound to which the ladies could confidently add their voices.

Now of course, is my usual ask, for more Gentlemen to join our Choir. We are a very friendly group of people and you would be made most welcome. There are no auditions and no necessity to read music, just come along to rehearsal and give it a try. Ladies are also always welcome of course.

We meet every Wednesday evening from 7-30pm until 9-15pm in the Concert Hall at the Dukeries Academy in Ollerton. This is best accessed by the Leisure Centre entrance and car park.

We can be heard on YouTube and more information regarding the Choir can be found on our website www.thedukeriesingers.com

We do love to perform and we have some Concerts booked:

- Saturday 29 April 2017 at 7-00pm
A Concert in St. Nicholas Church, Tuxford
- Saturday 10 June 2017
A Concert in Farndon Church, Farndon
- Saturday 24 June 2017
A Concert in the Village Hall, Edwinstowe

We have plenty of dates available if you would like to book us for your celebration or fund raising event. Our Concert Secretary Phil would be delighted to speak to you on 01623 822070

Be kind to yourself

My name is Nikki Bordacs, I am a new personal trainer to the Warsop area and I would like to invite you to join my new fitness class called Fit Camp.

My motto is "Be kind to yourself" and I believe being healthy and fit is doing just that.

Fitness has always been my passion and I have always gone to classes all over. I now love helping others to feel as energised and healthy as I do.

I'm so overwhelmed that my knowledge and advice actually changes lives for the better.

Not only do I help make superficial benefits, but also blood pressures have been lowered so significantly that anti hypertension medication has no longer been needed.

This is life changing and prolonging. I am honoured to aid these amazing changes in the fantastic people I work with.

Fit Camp is a class that I run in the Warsop Parish Church, Tudor Barn hall on a Tuesday & Thursday from 6pm until 6:45pm.

It's filled with all fitness levels, men and women, who come along with determination to just have fun along with a little sweat!

No one is judged here just purely respected and welcomed into our little fitness family.

So come along and have a little try.

Prices are £3.50 per drop in (no appointment necessary). Or £20 for 8 consecutive sessions.

Hope to see you there!
