

Presenting the Parade

Warsop Carnival celebrated cultures of the world for this year's event which proved to be a popular theme going by the high standard of float entries.

The winning float in this year's carnival parade was Warsop Scouts with their Chinese Dragon theme. 2nd place went to Hetts Lane holiday club with 3rd place going to Warsop's Real Poppy campaign.

Hetts Lane Holiday Club won 2nd place.

Warsop's Real Poppy Campaign won 3rd place.

Carnival Cakes and Cuppas

The annual Warsop Carnival is traditionally held on the first Sunday in July. It is always a huge success with all the great things that makes any carnival worth a visit, including: the fun fair, carnival parade, carnival (now prom) king and queen, hook a duck, food stalls, live music, arena entertainment and much, much more.

But with all that to have fun with, sometimes you just need to sit down, have a proper cupper and a slice of cake and where better to get it than at the Inner Wheel Tea tent. The fantastic thing about the tea tent, is every year it shows the true spirit of the Inner Wheel friendship with Rotary. Together these two charitable organisations make the tent a true success. Working together, as individual organisations, to make one machine where the cogs whirl around, to become the driving force behind the tent.

The day before, when the marquee has been erected, the wheels go in to motion. Rotary members collect the chairs and help load and unload them at the carnival location. The tea doesn't boil itself, so they help also with the generators and setting up the boilers and ensuring the tent is health and safety ready. Strong hands make light work, but without these behind the scenes guys, we wouldn't be able to run the tent.

The members all ready to serve visitors.

Having set up, the ladies then rule the roost and my, do they do that with style. Considering that most of our volunteers think they are 'of an age'; watching them in action you will see they had more fire, desire, smiles and energy than many of the younger generations. From 08:00 they were setting tables, with cloths, vases of flowers, leaflets, placing chairs and making the marquee a picture-perfect location for afternoon tea.

We typically serve teas, coffees and healthy slices of cake at £1 each. Over 1,000 items were sold to the general public with all profits going to charity.

We look forward to this day every year, as it is the first fundraising event for the new President and organised with the Vice President and the Club's Carnival Committee. It's a chance to see how things work, get to know people, chat (eat cake), promote Inner Wheel, (drink tea) and sometimes, shake hands with the local dignitaries.

Carnival dignitaries.

Each year the President selects a charity that is close to their heart. The event went very well for the President's chosen charity, Autism East Midlands (AEM). President Helen said she was 'Blown away by the strength of positive feeling towards this charity. She was amazed at how many people had said they had never heard of it, and that they needed help'. By hosting these events, we want to raise awareness of ourselves and the charities we support. No time to sit and chat, the President was back on her feet and at the tea and coffee station, serving the thirsty carnival goers.

Not only the volunteers who attend the day, make this event a success. There are those who cannot physically volunteer, but want to be involved. All cakes are donated by members of the Warsop Club. All expert bakers that would put the Great British Bake Off to shame. We also have to say a big thank you to the organisations who supported us.

Carnival visitors getting their cake and eating it.

Having started the day with an empty marquee, that is how we needed to end the day. So with a few volunteer stragglers left, the marquee was cleared, and President Helen led the way, with trays in hand to take the cake to the people. If the cake eaters won't come to the tent, the tent will go to the cake eaters. Walking around the carnival revellers now settled in to watch the evening entertainment, cake was sold at 50p. There is nothing better than a pint of lager and a slice of apple pie... or so we are told. But it raised a further £20 for the AEM charity, so all ends well.

If you'd like to help out at the carnival next year, just get in touch. You'll find our contact details on the website www.warsopinnerwheel.co.uk

Big smiles even at the end of a very busy day.

I do enjoy the lazy days of August and for those who aren't wishing to do nothing all day - there is plenty of things to keep you and the young ones entertained including lots of cycle themed events culminating in a BMX event on Carr Lane park on 22nd August (see page 19).

We will be welcoming the first of a national chain opening its doors in Warsop on Wednesday 2nd August. Subway will be opening a store at the bottom of Clumber Street. This is promising as it could mean that other larger retailers may see Warsop as a viable place to invest - will we attract a new supermarket?

The Parish Council have been busy contacting large supermarket retailers but unfortunately, none seem interested at this present time - hopefully with Subway arriving others will follow suit! (

Do please continue to support your independent shops in Warsop too!

Please also come along to a meeting with your new MP organised by The Parish Council (see page 4).

GARDENING MONTHLY...

General Tasks and garden maintenance

The most important thing this month is to enjoy your garden; heady scents, glorious colours, an abundance of fruits and vegetables and hopefully more sunshine. What could be more enjoyable and satisfying than surveying the results of your hard work throughout the year?

Watering

Remember to water and feed your plants regularly, especially those in hanging baskets, pots or containers as well as climbers and roses growing against a sunny wall. Many a plant will not recover from a drought, so water regularly and do not resort to feast and famine.

Water hydrangeas with hydrangea colourant for true blue hydrangeas next year.

If possible, set up an automatic watering system for your vegetable plot, borders and even containers. They are worth their weight in gold and can work on a sensor system that detects how dry the soil is. Once you have one you will wonder why you did not install one years ago. Going on holiday will no longer involve wondering if your precious plants will survive a dry spell or paying someone else to hold a hose!

If it stays warm and dry, water saving strategies include using bathwater and washing up water, provided they are neither too dirty or oily. Keep your pond topped up, free of pond weed and clean - green algae can be toxic to pets.

Weeding

Boring but vital. Keep on top of weeds in borders, the vegetable garden and all your pots and containers. Little and often will reduce what will become a Herculean task if left to spiral out of control.

Weeds not only look messy but use valuable moisture in the ground. The best and easiest way to weed is to use a Dutch hoe which will cut the weeds just below the surface. Weeding on a sunny day will ensure weeds left on the surface dry out and die in the warmth.

Birds

Birds need fresh water for bathing and drinking, especially during hot and dry spells, so keep supplies plentiful and regularly changed. Throw out mouldy food on bird tables and remember that birds cannot digest milk - it can kill them.

Lawns

Mow regularly but do not bother to feed or water; it is a waste of time and will promote vigorous growth that may not stand up to the rigours of winter. Come autumn, feed with a high phosphate content fertiliser to promote root growth and strengthen the grass for winter.

If it has grown out of control whilst you have been away cut it first with the mower blades on the highest setting and then on progressively lower settings until back to the usual level - this will train the grass to grow leafily again. If you are planning a new lawn, start preparing the area by digging and clearing weeds.

Bulbs, flowers and containers

Plant autumn flowering bulbs and start to plant spring flowering bulbs, especially tulips, daffodils, alliums, iris and crocus. Always use the side bulbs of tulips and daffodils as they make perfectly good bulbs in their own right. Plant specially prepared hyacinth bulbs for Christmas.

Put poinsettias in the dark for 14 hours a day and full light for the remaining 10 hours to encourage the formation of those cheery festive red bracts.

Frack Free Warsop

A big thank you to the hardworking Carnival Committee who delivered a wonderful, fun-filled day for the people of our area. It was also a great opportunity to raise awareness of the threat to our beautiful countryside from the unconventional gas industry: so many people signed our petitions that we ran out of forms!

Seismic Surveys

Many locals will have received flyers from Ineos Shale telling us about the seismic surveys they are about to carry out. What the leaflet does not tell us are the risks that are associated with our countryside becoming an unconventional gas field. The seismic surveys are taking place all around us. Blue and red flags are appearing in fields; these will be followed by cables and monitoring equipment, then the Vibroseis trucks will arrive. Once the survey starts, there will be loud noise and vibrations as the trucks thump the earth beneath them or explosive charges are detonated underground. Buildings can shake, not to mention the disturbance to our fields and wildlife. The information gathered will help Ineos plan where to start sinking the wells, up to ten drill pads in each licence area, possibly more once in full production.

Photograph of vibroseis trucks from www.frack-off.org website.

Risks to our area

There are many possible risks which our community may face including reduced house values and increased house insurance premiums; disruption and pollution of wildlife habitats; air pollution and water contamination which lead, most importantly, to significant risks to public health for which there is a growing body of evidence and is the reason this industry has been banned in several countries.

Water contamination

Statistics show around 6% failure rates on this type of well which allows pollutants like methane, gas and fracking fluid to migrate into surrounding rock or groundwater. This figure rises the longer the well exists. Once drilled, the wells remain in the ground indefinitely and, even when plugged, may continue to leak for up to thirty years after they have been abandoned. Over time, all wells could eventually fail. Surface spills can also lead to pollutants escaping into surrounding fields, risking crop contamination and harm to animals. Each well drilled will go through the aquifer that supplies drinking water to 8 million people. Add in the heavily faulted geology, old mine workings and the increased risk of earthquake in our area and that figure may be optimistic. Well failure could lead to permanent contamination of our water supply.

If you are surprised by workers on your property you should refuse access and document their activity, times, dates, location, details of any damage and take pictures. If your area is licensed for fracking, consider forming a group to network with neighbours and share information about potential seismic survey plans. Water shortages

Each well uses millions of gallons of water mixed with chemicals and sand which is pumped under high pressure into the shale layer to break it up and release the gas. The water which flows back to the surface can contain new materials from the fracked shale including naturally occurring radioactive materials, arsenic, chromium, cadmium, lead and various waste gases which cannot be allowed back into the water system as it is toxic. Taking such huge amounts of water out of the locality could lead to water shortages affecting local farms, businesses and residents and could cause the die back of our ancient woodlands.

Air pollution

Emissions can occur across the whole process including methane, benzene, formaldehyde and toluene as well as radon and oxides of nitrogen. In addition to this, our air quality will be affected by emissions from diesel engines, compressors and heavy transport vehicles which service each site. HGV vehicles may be a particular health hazard when large numbers of truck journeys are required to tanker away the toxic flow back water to special facilities. The impact of methane on global warming is many times higher than CO2.

If we do nothing...

...this industry could take over our countryside bringing risks to our environment for many years to come.

Actions you can take are:

- Contact your MP Ben Bradley and voice your concerns.
- Notts County Council Policy Committee is to make a decision on whether or not to allow Seismic Surveying to take place on their land. Write to the committee members to let them know how you feel about this.
- Object to Planning Applications as they come up.
- Find out more - there is a lot of information online about unconventional gas fields and fracking.
- Raise awareness of the threat to our environment with your neighbours and friends.

Come to the next meeting of Frack Free Warsop, held on the last Wednesday of each month at 7 pm in the back room of The Plough. Information used in the article has been obtained from the Medact report, "Health and Fracking" and open access online sources.

MP's office up and running

So it's been a pretty busy month or so since the election but we're finally getting things together, with my team now largely in place and my office on Church Street ready to go.

You can contact us in a number of ways – email ben.bradley.mp@parliament.uk or by phone 01623 372 016. You can also keep track of my work on Facebook, just search for Ben Bradley MP.

I am very keen to ensure that Warsop isn't left out or ignored, as I fear has often been the case in the past. With that in mind, I will hold weekly drop in sessions in the Town Hall, which will be on Thursday mornings between 10 and 12. The first of these sessions will be on the 27th July and will take place every week. Whilst I can't always be at that drop-in myself due to regular commitments in Westminster, my team will always be on hand to help and I will hold a monthly surgery myself in the same place on a Saturday morning, which I will advertise asap. Working with the Parish Council I've also arranged for a special Council meeting so residents can come and have their say directly.

Finally can I just say what an immense privilege and honour it was to lead the Carnival Parade a few weeks ago, and a massive thank you to the volunteers and supporters who made that brilliant event happen. Look forward to meeting everyone soon.

BEN BRADLEY MP DROP-IN SESSIONS & SURGERIES

Ben Bradley MP is holding weekly drop in for constituents at Warsop Town Hall on Thursdays, 10am – 1pm

Ben will also be holding his first surgery at the Warsop Town Hall on Saturday 29th July 2017. This surgery is by appointment only.

To book an appointment either telephone 01623 372016 Or email ben.bradley.mp@parliament.uk

Show Your Local Park Some Love This #LoveParks Week

Mansfield District Council is encouraging residents and visitors alike to step out and make the most of the local parks, which are the pride of the district. There are 600 acres of green space, including 40 parks, play areas and trails, and nine nature reserves.

The council has seven award-winning parks and local nature reserves – Carr Bank Park, King George V Park, Peafield Park, Quarry Lane Local Nature Reserve, The Carrs Local Nature Reserve, Titchfield Park and Yeoman Hill Park - which offer a wide range of activities, sports and entertainment like summer festivals and brass band concerts for people of all ages to enjoy.

Cllr Andrew Tristram, Portfolio Holder for Environment and Wellbeing said:

"Our parks are wonderful places which offer spaces to exercise and keep fit, listen to a concert, attend a festival, play with the children, enjoy a picnic or simply just relax. Going to a park regularly has many benefits, from enjoying the flowers, trees and wildlife to taking a moment to wind down, de-stress and take in the fresh air."

"Being outdoors in a pleasant environment helps to support good health and improve wellbeing. Whether you want to join a Park Run, play pétanque, walk the dog, enjoy the scenery and wildlife or just soak up the sun, I'd urge you to pop along to your local park or local nature reserve. We're really fortunate to have these spaces which many of us have grown up enjoying, and which I hope will continue to be enjoyed by future generations. Love Parks Week is a brilliant opportunity to remind people what an excellent resource our parks are."

The council's Parks team works with volunteers and other agencies to maintain the green spaces and in the past year have planted 78 fruit trees, 30 standard trees and 5,000 young trees in the district's parks, open spaces and nature reserves. Find out about parks in the district at www.mansfield.gov.uk/parks.

Love Parks Week is run by Keep Britain Tidy. Take a photo, video or simply post on social media, using the hashtag #LoveParks, telling the world why you love your park.

Warsop Inner Wheel

The Inner Wheel Club of Warsop is so much more than a Club. Being a part of a World-Wide organisation, we are also a group of women, who come together with shared interests.

We have become friends by being social and socialising. We've had fun and in doing so we have helped to raise funds for charities and causes. 2016/2017 has been a fantastic example of Warsop Inner Wheel at its best.

As we near the end of our year, President Gloria Humphrey is reflecting on what we have achieved as friends and members. With fun, true friendship and personal service, Warsop has quietly and confidently raised just over £8,000 for local, national and international charities.

raising events and of course the Club Charter on the 2nd November. Gloria reflects on the evening and in particular having Lily Taylor-Ward sing beautifully to a stunned and silenced room. The room looked stunning of course, with special thanks to Sue Pasierb and Christine Fretwell for their amazing floristry. It was a fabulous evening, with great feedback from other Clubs. It was superbly organised and Gloria sends her thanks to Jean Nock for all her hard work in organising the evening, 'it was one to treasure.'

Aside to her Club Presidential duties, Gloria's fundraising events included the Warsop Carnival, Mediterranean afternoon, the Pantomime Dame, a Christmas Market, the Warsop Christmas at The Shed, Flower arranging day, Cantamus, the BEAT walk and an afternoon tea. These were all very different and very enjoyable.

The Inner Wheel Club of Warsop has close links with the Rotary Club of Warsop, Shirebrook & District. As President, Gloria attended the Rotary Handover, Party in the Farm and their Christmas Dinner. She also had the Club honour with President Tim to lay a wreath at Warsop Cenotaph in November. We also associate with other clubs in the area and representing our Club, Gloria attended the Warsop Ladies Probus luncheon and coffee morning.

Not content with this activity, Gloria has been a very busy President and attended the Langwith Flower Festival, been on two club walks, taken part in two knit and natters and the knitters tea, the Inner Wheel Celebration Day on 10 January, attended our Inter Club International Day and coffee morning; Five District 22 Club International events and the last Bolsover Craft Day. Some might say she's been a very busy bunny!

Gloria has represented our Club as President at many levels and always with poise and decorum. She attended 11 Club Charters, all three District Meetings, the District Induction Day, the Past and Present Officers lunch, two Past District Chairman lunches, the District 7 Rally, District Chairman Di Hylton's Garden Party, the International Rally, and the Christmas Carol Service, where she was thrilled to read a lesson.

Gloria Humphrey Hands over her presidency to Helen Tomlinson

John Fretwell, Gloria Humphrey, Steve Lunn

This year President Gloria continued her years of personal service and support, by choosing the National Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children (NSPCC), Schools Service as her chosen charity. It costs £795,000 to run the Nottingham Service Centre alone and any money that is raised in Nottinghamshire is spent in Nottinghamshire.

Tracey Davenport from Nottinghamshire NSPCC, said that our fundraising will go a long way to providing much needed support in our area. There are nearly 4000 children at risk in Nottinghamshire, and currently over 700 are part of a child protection plan. Tracey is part of the Mansfield NSPCC which is currently 21 ladies, and their sole role is to fundraise. All of their committee members are passionate about raising money to help stop abuse and to protect children, a task that doesn't seem to get any easier in this modern world. As a volunteer for the past 5 years for the School Service, funds raised will help and support talking to all Primary School Children to "Speak Out to Stay Safe"

Reflecting on her year before handing over to Helen from 1 July, Gloria has said that she has thoroughly enjoyed her year as President of the Inner Wheel Club of Warsop. 'It has been a privilege and I would like to thank the wonderful Committee that has supported me, as well as the Club Members.' When we look back at the year of July 2016 to June 2017 we realised what an amazing club we are and how much we can achieve, because we are better together. We welcomed three new members in the first month with Gloria as President. At the year end, we are a healthy, happy and thriving club of 44 members.

There are many duties as President and Gloria has carried them out with aplomb attending all Club and Committee meetings, fund

Roaring success for East Midlands Trains' 'Lions Clubs 100' dedication

East Midlands Trains unveil plaque in honour of Lions Club International's Centennial celebration.

The plaque was unveiled by Lions Club International and East Midlands Trains representatives at Nottingham station. Lions Clubs International is the largest community service organisation in the world and the associations help millions of people around the world by leading and assisting community projects.

East Midlands Trains has teamed up with Lions Clubs International to launch a train named in honour of the great work they do in the local community.

'Lions Clubs 100' now proudly sits on the side of Meridian unit 222017 which is used for services on the mainline between Nottingham and London St Pancras.

Lions Clubs International works in over 200 countries throughout the world and has 1.3 million members. Their mission is to help people and communities by leading and assisting with projects including refurbishing playgrounds or parks, building medical clinics, expanding libraries, sponsoring fountains and contributing donations towards large-scale infrastructure projects.

Mark Coney, Head of Fleet Delivery for East Midlands Trains, said: "I was asked if we might be able to commemorate Lions Clubs International and their centennial celebrations and thought what better way than to name one of our trains.

"Our connection to the communities we serve right across the East Midlands is integral to everything we do so we really wanted to recognise their positive work over so many years.

"It was great to have such a large turn-out to witness the plaque unveil and see the train off."

Clive Yates, Service Delivery Manager for East Midlands Trains, said: "This was a really special moment for me because, as well as being a dedicated member of staff, I have also been active in Lions Club International Vale of Belvoir branch for 32 years.

"I am currently serving my third term as the club President and I'm very proud that we continue to raise in excess of £10,000 each year to support local, national and international causes."

Balvinder Sokhi, District Governor for Lions Clubs International, said: "It's a fantastic gesture from East Midlands Trains to acknowledge our work in the community.

"It's a train that customers use every day so it will be great to see it running up and down the network for all to see!"

After the unveiling of the 'Lions Clubs International' plaque at Nottingham station, the 1205 train departed for London St Pancras. Several of the assembled guests boarded the service to Beeston where they continued to reminisce about various community initiatives from the past and look forward to future community events.

The Friends of Thynghowe

Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

Summer is not the best time for practical woodland archaeology due to the dense vegetation so our focus shifts onto research with documents rather than investigations on site.

The recently published Welbeck Atlas is a rich source of information. This includes nearly 80 maps of the Estates of William Cavendish, Earl of Newcastle compiled by William Senior between 1629 and 1640. These maps cover the Earl's lands in Nottinghamshire, Derbyshire, Staffordshire, Northumberland, Gloucestershire and Somerset. The local maps of his Welbeck Estate and surrounding areas are most fascinating. The 1629 map of Sookholme shows the original courses of the River Meden and Sookholme Brook. The area now called the Rhein o' Thorns was named as "Reynold Thornes" (Reynolds may have been a Sookholme farmer). Owners of the barn conversions at Sookholme who are thinking of a traditional name for their home may be interested to know that a nearby field was referred to as "Shittin Hole"! The maps of Gleadthorpe and Edwinstowe have provided insights that have helped our research into the trackways around Thynghowe and into the area of the Forest named Prestwich.

A couple of original documents that have come into the possession of the Friends of Thynghowe refer to "The Absolute Order No 156 of the Board of Agriculture bearing date the twenty seventh day November One thousand eight hundred and ninety issued pursuant to ... The Limited Owners Residences Act 1870 ... sum of £8264 11/9 for the improvement of the mansion called Welbeck Abbey ... by Sanitary Works, Hot and Cold Water Supply, Hydrants, etcetera ..." These manuscripts list the properties and their occupiers in Welbeck Abbey and the surrounding villages in 1890 that were associated with the financing of the improvements to the abbey. We will be lodging these documents with the Nottinghamshire Archives but if anybody has an interest in viewing them whilst we still hold them, please contact us.

Another interesting read is the latest issue of the Transactions of The Thoroton Society that describes the latest research into Nottinghamshire's history. Along with an update on the 2016 Thynghowe excavation it includes articles covering the changes to the northern boundary of Sherwood Forest in the 16th century and also the development of water meadows along the rivers Poulter, Meden and Maun with particular reference to the system near Norton.

You can find out about our activities from our website and Facebook page and you can email us on thynghowe@warsopweb.co.uk or contact us by phone on 846281.

The Vikings of Sherwood project is supported by the National Lottery through the Heritage Lottery Fund.

Birklands Amazing Year

Since our visit from Ofsted in February, in which we were categorised a Good school, pupils at Birklands have continued to have an amazing year.

Our pupils have taken part in many exciting educational visits such as visiting Nottingham University, The National Space Centre, Southwell Minster, Yorkshire Wildlife Park and The Deep.

In school, our curriculum has continued to be enriched with productions from all classes, themed days, participating in national sports week, visiting theatre groups, residential and after-school clubs.

This term, our newly formed football team, took part in their first tournament and loved the whole experience. They are looking forward to more matches next season.

The enterprise project, launched in January has proven very successful. Each class has managed to 'grow' their £50 and are beginning to benefit from their profits.

Our PTFA have continued to be very proactive in fundraising for the school. Thanks to their hard-work and dedication, Birklands now have multi-sport nets in the sports arena, our Key Stage 1 pupils have some mini basketball nets and our Year 6 pupils were able to have a leaver's party at the Oaklands Centre.

In June, as part of our partnership with West Notts College, we saw our first community training event. This was a two day course called Family First aid. The parents that took the course said that it was fun and beneficial.

At the beginning of July, some of our pupils were lucky enough to be on the local radio station Mansfield 103.2. They had to describe an object without naming it- definitely not as easy as it sounds.

Next Academic Year

We know that next year will be just as exciting.

Our breakfast club is extending its hours. From September our breakfast club will be open from 7.30am.

We are launching our after-school club. This will run from 3.00pm until 5.30pm, for just £7 per child per session.

Our school choir will be taking part in a national event at Sheffield Arena.

And of course we will run more courses for parents, in partnership with West Notts College.

Birklands are also looking for a community project to become involved in, as we take delivery of 30 tree saplings.

If you would like to discuss anything in this article please contact Birklands School.

Eastlands Sow Community Spirit

Eastlands School, Meden Vale have started their Community Enrichment programme.

Mrs Woods has kindly agreed to supervise her group to complete 4 projects around the village during the following year.

Part 1 Replanted the train tubs on Elksley Road.

Part 2. The Three Lions frontage. Clear and replant with poppies. This includes a picture of our vision on completion.

Thankyou so much to the girls, Mrs Woods and the parent who volunteered.

The children also took part in a litter pick and weeding at the local park in Meden Vale.

WARSOPFootpath & Countryside Group

After an unpromising start 2017 has been a brilliant year for orchids around Warsop. The late arrival of the cows on the Hills & Holes allowed a fine crop of Fragrant Orchids to flower without getting trampled.

Bee Orchids appeared in several spots where I have not previously seen them and they have appeared for a second time near the viewpoint on the top of Warsop Vale. It is pleasing that Nottinghamshire County Council have agreed to delay the mowing of that area to allow them to finish flowering.

By the end of June, most of the banks of Warsop's waterways have been checked at least once for the problem invasive plant, Himalayan Balsam. Some areas are much clearer than in previous years but some bad patches remain. The riverbanks near Hammerwater Bridge have been particularly bad this spring with over five thousand plants needing to be removed, possibly due to heavy rain last autumn carrying seeds downstream from other affected sites. The wetlands of The Bottoms at Meden Vale appear to have many fewer balsam plants compared with last year when we put a lot of effort into pulling them before they could seed.

The wildflower grassland area next to the river on The Carrs was looking good earlier this year. I counted 15 different flower species together with a Common Blue butterfly showing its approval. The taller grasses were waving in the breeze and the area was alive with insects and birds. By now the meadow may be past its best but it remains a valuable habitat although you may have to look more closely to see all of the different flowers.

We shouldn't welcome the shortening day lengths but they usually coincide with the slowing of the rate of grass growth. We have already given many of Warsop's footpaths their second cut of the year and there is a possibility that some may have to be given a third or a fourth. When we started this work twenty years ago, the paths received at most, two cuts!

Our next group walk will be on Saturday 19th August. This will be the last of our walks celebrating the anniversary of the Charter of the Forest, focussing on the landscape along the rivers that once formed the Sherwood Forest boundary. We will meet outside Warsop Library at 10am before embarking on a local walk following sections of the Forest boundary along the River Meden in Warsop parish. Armed Forces Day celebrations in the market

Families flocked to Mansfield Market Place as the sun shined on the town's celebration of all things military on Sunday 25 June.

The Armed Forces Day event, organised by Mansfield Business Improvement District (BID) in collaboration with Mansfield District Council, was an opportunity for local people to show their appreciation of servicemen and women, past and present.

It was part of a national weekend of events up and down the country to recognise the armed services. Live music by the vintage inspired vocal harmony trio, The Cherry Belles, and captivating sounds from Mansfield District Corps of Drums were among the features of the day, which saw people of all ages enjoy a day out.

Organisations supporting the day included Help for Heroes and Hero the Bear, Royal Air Force, Royal British Legion, Royal Navy Reserves, HMS Sherwood, Mansfield Sea Cadets, and Police Cadets.

Among the attractions were free children's face painting, a display of vintage military vehicles and craft market with 35+ stalls. There were also craft gazebos where children could make a Spitfire plane and paint a toy soldier to take home.

CLlr Kevin Brown, Chairman at Mansfield District Council who opened the day of events, said: "It was an honour to open the day, and what a day it was! Hundreds of people of all ages came together to show their appreciation for the Armed Forces community. The amount of support received was fantastic. We hope people will continue to support other town centre events in the same way."

Sue Rogers, from Mansfield BID, said: "It was great to see so many people coming out to celebrate our Armed Forces tribute. The town centre was extremely busy nearly all day, and we've had lots of great feedback."

"For many people, the highlight was seeing the RAF Hurricane perform a flypast over our town, while for others the parade was an extremely moving experience."

And she added: "Many people joined in the activities, proving that Mansfield has a fantastic community spirit."

The event was organised by Mansfield BID on behalf of the town centre businesses in partnership with Mansfield District Council. Additional funding was provided by the Ministry of Defence.

For next year's Armed Forces Day event, a Spitfire has already been reserved to celebrate the 10th anniversary of supporting the Armed Forces community, from serving personnel and reserves to veterans, cadets and families.

Thank You Letters.

Sylvia Woodward would like to thank everyone for all her birthday cards beautiful flowers and presents she received for her 80th birthday. It was very much appreciated.

Man Ordered to Pay £2023 for Fly Tipping

A Mansfield man has been ordered by magistrates to pay a total of £2023 in fines and costs for fly tipping.

Christopher Moles, 26, of Sadler Street, Mansfield, admitted depositing bags of waste, contrary to section 33 of the Environmental Protection Act 1990.

Building materials, including bags of tiles, a sink with taps and a toilet - the waste from a bathroom refurbishment - were found on Green Lane in Pleasley on 4 November, which had been fly tipped from the back of his van.

A passing motorist witnessed the items being thrown from the van, noted the vehicle registration and reported the matter to council officers who then investigated the offence.

After hearing the details of the case magistrates imposed a fine of £1230, victim surcharge of £123, compensation of £173.24 and costs of £497, making a total of £2023.24.

Cllr Bill Drewett, Portfolio Holder for Safer Communities said:

"Fly tipping continues to be a major problem. It creates a health hazard and blights the landscape. We will not tolerate the actions of people who dump their waste and damage the environment, which then costs thousands of pounds of tax payers' money to clear up. I am sure that residents across the district would find this behaviour very upsetting and totally unacceptable.

"If people fly tip waste, they need to realise that they will be caught and prosecuted, and could end up with a hefty fine via the courts and a criminal record."

Woman Ordered to Pay £584 for Littering

A Mansfield woman was ordered to pay £584 in fines and charges after Mansfield District Council prosecuted her for littering.

Caroline Rowley (26) of Church Street, Sutton in Ashfield, committed an offence of littering, on 8 February 2017 outside Mansfield bus station. No plea was entered and the matter was proved in her absence.

A neighbourhood warden had seen Rowley drop a cigarette outside the bus station.

Southern Derbyshire Magistrates' Court fined Rowley £440 on 14 June 2017 and ordered her to pay a contribution towards prosecution costs of £100 and a victim surcharge of £44. The total of £584 was to be paid in full by 28 June 2017.

Cllr Bill Drewett, Portfolio Holder for Safer Communities, said:

"We take littering seriously and we will prosecute those who drop litter. There are plenty of litter bins around the town, so there's no excuse for not using them. It could end up being a costly mistake, so the advice is to dispose of your litter properly - and avoid a hefty fine and a criminal record."

Parish Council Disgust Over Illegal Warsop Tipping

Below are images taken of the illegal tipping in empty houses on Bainbridge Road, Warsop.

Incidents like these have increased dramatically over recent months and The Parish Council of Warsop and District want to let the public and offenders know that this won't be tolerated.

They feel this is unacceptable and will be making every effort and chasing every lead to catch and fine the offenders.

Please take pride in our Parish and keep it clean.

Things to do with the family this summer

Mansfield District Council, Mansfield Museum, Mansfield District Leisure Trust, Mansfield BID and the Four Seasons Shopping Centre are putting on a wide range of events and activities to keep the whole family entertained.

The guide includes information about sports, crafts and creative events taking place between 26 July and 6 September while the My Mansfield magazine is packed full of news and information about what's happening at the council.

Events include the Mansfield Summer Festival, which takes place at King George V Park on 9 August and Carr Lane Park in Warsop on 22 August from 10am to 3pm.

It promises to be a fun filled day of entertainment including cycling themed crafts and competitions to celebrate a 'summer of cycling' as the town prepares to welcome the fourth stage of the Tour of Britain to Mansfield.

At each park there are also pony rides, arena attractions including a circus skills workshop, climbing wall, face painting and Punch and Judy Shows, plus much more.

Also included in the What's On guide is information about sports sessions in various parks as well as lots of activities at the districts five leisure centres- there's something to suit all ages and abilities. The My Mansfield magazine is delivered to most households within the district so be sure to keep an eye out for it in the post but alternatively, to find out more and to see full details of the activities and news stories, download it from www.mansfield.gov.uk.

Alternatively you can sign up to receive the school holiday What's On guides direct to your inbox. Just email eventsandpromotions@mansfield.gov.uk with What's On as the subject. It gives details of the full schedule of events and activities including dates, times and locations.

Having wrestled with our Raspberry bed all morning, I am surely deserving of this sit down in front of my screen. I swear we have raspberry canes for Nottinghamshire!

We have no Concerts in August, but we visit Weston, near Sutton on Trent on Saturday 16th September 2017, to deliver a concert in their Church at 7-30pm.

Our last Choir practise for the Summer term is on Wednesday 26th July 2017. We return to rehearsal on Wednesday 30th August 2017. Thereafter we meet every Wednesday in the Concert Hall at the Dukeries Academy at 7-30pm until 9-15pm. This is best accessed via the leisure Centre entrance and free car park.

This would be an excellent time to join this very friendly Choir as we shall all be beginning our preparations for our Christmas engagements and all be at square one. You are welcome to attend for one or two weeks to see if singing in a Choir is for you. There are no Auditions and no necessity to be able to read music. It is fun, friendly and satisfying to sing together to make a good sound.

If you would like to book the Dukeries Singers for your fund raising, celebration, charity event or just "a bit of a do," please contact our Concert Secretary, Phil, on 01623 822070. He would be delighted to hear from you. For more information about us we are on-line at thedukeriesingers.com and on facebook and YouTube.

...For a summer of cycling

Hundreds of people are expected to descend on the Mansfield Summer Festival this school holiday to celebrate a summer of cycling.

With the fourth stage of the OVO Energy Tour of Britain cycling race starting in Mansfield on 6 September, the town is gearing up to encourage cycling and physical activity to inspire the next generation of world-class cyclists.

With that in mind, Mansfield District Council has organised the annual Summer Festival events, with a cycling and health and wellbeing theme, that run from 10am to 3pm.

The first of three events will take place at Titchfield Park on Friday 28 July. There will be an array of family entertainment including a charity duck race to raise funds for local soup kitchens.

The second festival at King George V Park, off Blackscotch Lane, on Wednesday 9 August will mark the official local launch for Tour of Britain. There will be cycling competitions with medals to be won and plenty of giveaways up for grabs. You'll also have the opportunity to meet the Tour of Britain mascot and professional cyclists.

You can also have your own bike serviced for free by Dr Bikes, which includes safety checks, puncture and brake repairs and gear setting.

The third and final Summer Festival is at Carr Lane Park, near to the CARRS in Market Warsop, on Tuesday 22 August and will continue the cycling theme with a BMX workshop on the ready-made BMX track.

In addition to the cycling theme at all three events, families can enjoy free pony rides, Punch and Judy shows and even a climbing wall.

Entertainment includes free pony ride.

Most activities are free but some require a small donation so be sure to bring some cash. There will also be food and drink including The Rustic Crust pizza oven and Regal Refreshments, the Titchfield Teahouse at Titchfield Park and Coffee POD at King George V Park.

Parking on site is limited so it is advisable to walk or use public transport wherever possible.

Cllr Andrew Tristram, Mansfield District Council's Portfolio Holder for the Environment and Wellbeing, said: "After the success of last year's Summer Festivals the council wanted to go bigger and better this year and celebrate a summer of cycling at the same time - we're very much looking forward to welcoming the Tour of Britain to Mansfield."

"There's something for everyone so there's no better reason to get out of the house, come rain or shine, and make the most of the summer holidays."

Full details are available online at:
www.mansfield.gov.uk/summerfestival.

Community engagement with the police.

Crowds enjoy the Punch and Judy show.

Guide Dogs for the Blind Association will be there with their demonstration team - see trained guide dog Natalie in action as she avoids obstacles and deals with an emergency situation. The council's Dog Control team with Chip the dog, will also be available to offer advice on responsible dog ownership.

In the arena, children can take part in fun workshops such as circus skills, parachute games and maypole dancing, while in the marquee they can have a go at make and take craft activities and even get the chance to make a bird house at Titchfield Park.

Children can get into the spirit ahead of the big race by making shakers to take along on the day and bunting to put up at home to help the council to decorate the district.

There's something for all the family to enjoy, not forgetting free face painting and even the chance to get involved in some sports activities and handle some reptiles.

Representatives from various council departments including Environmental Health, Leisure and Community Safety will answer questions and give advice throughout the day.

The Object is Alive: Matthew Darbyshire

Nottingham Castle Musuem & Art Gallery,
Lenton Road, Nottingham, NG1 6EL
Tel: 0115 8761400

Saturday 28 January - Sunday 14 May 2017

The Object is Alive has invited British artist Matthew Darbyshire to develop a new exhibition that actively engages with Nottingham Castle Museum & Art Gallery and its collection, and is influenced by the work of Polish artist and theatre maker Tadeusz Kantor, who was interested in the role and status of the object. Matthew has reimagined 14 objects from Nottingham Castle's collections – including 18th century Wedgwood, 20th century studio pottery, modernist sculpture and even a grenade from the Regimental Museum. By playing with scale and devising new materials and techniques, including experimenting with different concrete formulas, he has created a series of new works exclusively for the Castle.

The Object is Alive: Matthew Darbyshire is the first in a series of exhibitions that actively explore the role of object as discussed in Kantor's writing and artistic outputs. Funded by Arts Council England and the Henry Moore Foundation, this exhibition is part of a collaborative project with Radar at Loughborough University, and will be followed by Mike Cooter at New Walk Museum, Leicester (Winter 2017), and Giles Round at Derby Museums (Spring 2018).

The Harley Gallery, Welbeck, Worksop,
Nottinghamshire, S80 3LW
Tel: 01909 501 700

Sunday 22 January - Sunday 2 April 2017

Brick Wonders - Ancient, Natural and Modern Marvels in Lego - created by Warren Elsmore - will take visitors on a journey through history and round the globe featuring both old and new wonders of the world.

The seven wonders of the ancient world, including the Lighthouse at Alexandria and The Hanging Gardens of Babylon, are recreated in full to great effect. In all, the show will present more than 70 fantastically detailed models.

As well as ancient wonders, visitors can marvel at the recreation in miniature of some of the world's most spectacular natural landmarks from The Great Barrier Reef and The Great Wall of China to the Matterhorn. Seven modern inventions are also represented through the LEGO creations - from a Model T car and a light bulb to the international space station.

This exhibition includes a LEGO brick model of the 'British Antarctic Survey's Halley VI Research Station', designed by Hugh Broughton. Hugh also designed The Portland Collection gallery at Welbeck, which has won four regional RIBA (Royal Institute of
