Poppies on the Old Town Hall 2017

Plea to Reach Knitted Poppy Display Target

A further 4,000 knitted and crocheted poppies are needed to help create an extra-special Remembrance Sunday display in Mansfield Town Centre.

More than 6,000 poppies have been knitted this year, which will be added to the 8,000 that were made by hundreds of local volunteers for last year's display on the front of the Old Town Hall.

Mansfield District Council is appealing for more people to get involved to help reach the target of 18,000 to help mark the centenary of the end of the First World War.

Poppy decorations will also adorn part of the route for the Remembrance Day parade involving various community groups, which will start with a wreath laying ceremony at the Civic Centre war memorial at 10am before heading to St Peter's Church for a memorial service at 10.55am, and then continuing after the service to the Market Palace at noon where there will be a military salute. It will be followed by a veterans' 1940s tea dance. A wreath will also be laid at Carr Bank Park at 1.15pm.

Deputy Mayor of Mansfield Cllr Mick Barton, who has been spearheading the council's poppy appeal, said:

"This year is an extra special Remembrance Sunday, marking a centenary to the day since peace was declared after four terrible years of war.

"We aim to reflect that in Mansfield with what will be a magnificent display and in order to make that display really spectacular, we still need your poppies. It is not too late to get involved so please get knitting - even if you make just ten poppies, it will help."

The council will then be offering people the chance to help attach the poppies to the camouflage nets in the Market Place in the week beginning 22 October. People can also come along and write messages on a commemoration board at the same time, and donate a pound or two to the Royal British Legion's poppy appeal.

The displays will be installed during the week prior to Remembrance Sunday on 11 November.

If you are interested in helping you can speak to the Events team on 01623 463376 or email events@mansfield.gov.uk for more information. Details and poppy knitting patterns to download can be found online at www.mansfield.gov.uk/poppies.

Next meeting

We do not hold a meeting in November as we are all busy with Poppy Appeal and Remembrance. Our next meeting will be our 'thank you' meeting on the 10th December. We invite all members together with anyone who has supported the branch, in any way, over the past 12 months.

Anyone who has collected for the Poppy Appeal, made a donation, etc. is welcome, although numbers are needed for catering purposes. Starting at 7.30 pm – The Ex-Servicemen's Club, Carr Lane, NG20 0BN.

Anyone is welcome to attend our meetings and potential members do not have to be serving or ex-serving to join.

Barry Dawson has painted this beautiful watering can and donated it to the RBL to use as a raffle prize.

RBL will be sell tickets for 50p a ticket or £2.50 a book. They stand outside Age Concern and in the Co-op from 28th October 2018 for 2 weeks.

100 years ago many people gave the ultimate sacrifice to preserve our freedom and way of life.

This paper is dedicated to their memory and to all those who have fought in conflicts since.

Our thanks go to everyone who supports organisations such as the Royal British Legion and Help for Heroes. Many of us will never know what it was like to fight in the trenches or on a modern day battle field... we can, in a small way, assist them by supporting the work of these organisations.

Not just at this time of year, when poppies are worn with pride, but throughout...

...we will remember them.

GARDENING MONTHLY...

General tasks and garden maintenance

Tidy borders

Cut down herbaceous stems and clear the tatty remains of annuals, but do leave a little cover of the perennials that fade relatively elegantly (sedum, astilbes and grasses for example).

They will provide winter interest as well as some much needed wildlife shelter - ladybirds especially appreciate winter quarters and will repay your hospitality by disposing of aphids in industrial quantities next year. Leaving sodden debris and fallen leaves around plants will only encourage pests and disease.

Clean out the greenhouse

Clear out the greenhouse, wash pots and trays, clean, mend and oil your tools and throw away anything that is beyond hope or reasonable repair! Cleaning your greenhouse thoroughly will prevent pests from hibernating and leaping into action next spring. Wash the windows inside and out to allow maximum light in over the winter and scrub benches, fixtures and glazing bars with disinfectant, making sure you hose the whole place down really well, especially dark and dusty corners.

For really effective pest elimination, fumigation is the ticket. Move all plants outside, shut the windows, light a sulphur candle in the middle of the floor, (retreat at speed!), shut the door and wait until the smoke and fumes have completely dispersed several hours later. Your greenhouse should now be delightfully pest free!

Drain and lag...

Save yourself untold irritation and expense by draining and lagging standpipes, outdoor taps, irrigation lines and water pumps in advance of sudden hard frosts.

Prepare your soil for next year

For beds that lie bare in winter, carry on with the winter digging until the soil is too hard - use compost, manure, leaf mould - in fact as much organic matter as you can lay your hands on to replace the goodness in it. It can be left in a pretty rough state over the winter when the elements will break the clods down, making spring planting infinitely easier!

For text book soil improvement, you should add a layer of organic matter and dig it in by turning over spadefuls so it is buried below the surface. If this seems too much like hard work, just mulch the bed and leave the rest to the worms! If your soil is thin or heavy clay, just fork it over now; too much digging on the former will bring up infertile matter from below whilst great chunks of wet clay will remain rock solid over the winter and become nigh on impossible to break up next year.

Planting

Plant bare-rooted trees, shrubs, hedging and roses as well as fruit trees and bushes (see later). Soak the roots in a bucket of water for an hour first and protect against frost and wind if exposed.

Rake fallen leaves

Fallen leaves prevent light and air getting to plants and lawns and these dark, damp conditions are also heaven on earth for slugs, snails and an unwholesome array of fungal diseases. However, don't waste these tumbled treasures - given time they will decompose into fabulously rich leaf mould - aka 'nature's soil conditioner of choice'! Rake them up and throw into a simple frame made of chicken wire or wood. Failing that, black bin liners spiked with air holes will do if you can bear the sight, but remember to dampen the leaves first should they be dry (some hope!). Leaf mould takes about a year to mature (2 in the case of oak leaves), makes a great top dressing for woodland plants such as rhododendrons and is an excellent and FREE home-grown substitute for peat. Don't be tempted to use rose leaves, which can easily carry infection, or evergreens, which take too long to rot down.

Lawns

Rule one - keep off the lawn when it is sodden or frozen - a startling degree of damage is remarkably easily inflicted.

Rake fallen leaves regularly - left in place they will encourage fungal disease and bare patches and make your final cut when the grass is reasonably dry with the blades set high.

Scarify and spike to improve surface drainage and aeration and apply autumn feed and moss killer if you didn't do it last month.

New turf can be laid, weather permitting, and if you are planning to sow or lay a new lawn next spring, there is still time to prepare the ground so it is in tip top condition.

Book your mower in for servicing - leaving it until spring just places your machine firmly at the back of a long queue!

Birds

Winter is tough for birds - as temperatures fall, regular supplies of food and fresh water become ever more important to help them survive the cold months and emerge in good condition for the breeding season next year.

Do make sure clean water is available, especially in freezing conditions. Buy good quality bird food and fat or suet balls, ensure feeding stations are well out of the way of cats and enjoy the company of our feathered friends throughout the winter!

THE FIGHT FOR A FRACK FREE WARSOP

Will you fight to protect our countryside?

Pictured above is The Lings, a beautiful location on the edge of Warsop Parish boundary and Sherwood Forest, close to the Thynghowe Viking Assembly site, steeped in history and rural farming activities.

Any housing developer would pay a premium for views like this. This is, however, one of several sites looked at by Ineos as a possible location for exploratory drill rigs (information obtained through Freedom of Information). Where we see beauty and heritage, they see profit through industrialization.

This is the view from The Lings, looking towards Cuckney Hill.

If an exploratory drill pad was constructed, this is the view that the frackers would have. We, however, would find our view transformed into this:

With a night view of this:

A lot of people feel very strongly that our environment and the public should be protected against the onslaught of the shale gas industry; the risks it would bring have been mentioned here many times.

It does pose the question, why should we have to fight our own government in order to protect the air that we breathe and the water that we drink from those who would damage it?

Fracking was mentioned at several of the recent Conservative Party conference fringe events: Lee Rowley, Conservative MP for North East Derbyshire, warned that the government could lose the next general election and parliamentary seats unless it drops its backing for fracking. Mr Rowley, a former oil and gas analyst, echoes rumblings on the Conservative backbench of rebellion against the government's policies on fracking, with the Permitted Development and Nationally Significant Infrastructure Project (NSIP) consultation plans to remove local democracy from fracking planning applications, drawing objections from councils and MPs across the country.

One of the reasons the government is looking at making shale gas extraction a NSIP is because of the sheer scale of industrialisation it will bring. We are not just talking about the odd drill site nestling into a local field; the intention is to have as many as is needed to make the industry commercially viable; Lee Rowley in his above-mentioned speech talked about 6000-10,000 wells, each site requiring ancillary equipment, compressor stations, pipelines, HGV servicing, etc. This would mean creating a gas field to resemble those in the USA, but without the same vast tracts of land with low population:

Thankfully, our own local authorities, after protest from the public, are objecting to these government proposals which will effectively make planning law easier for the fracking industry. Making exploratory drill sites "permitted development" and part of the NSIP regime will take away our right to object at planning application stage but this blatant attack on democracy is being opposed by Warsop Parish Council, Mansfield District Council and, at its full council meeting in September, Notts County Council, by a vote of 29-1. All three councils intend to submit responses to the government consultation to oppose the changes.

Our MP, Ben Bradley, stated his opposition to the proposals on his Facebook page:

"I wanted to raise my objection to proposals that could see elements of fracking become 'permitted development'. I think taking away opportunities for local people to have a say would be bad for people's trust in Government and risk giving the companies involved too much power. We'll be working to make this case to Government over the coming months."

This is a positive step for democracy and we hope that the impetus of these objections will change the government's thinking on this issue. The government consultation ended on 25 October, 2018.

HOW TO SUPPORT THE CAMPAIGN TO BE FRACK FREE

- Object to the recent imprisonment of three environmental activists, more info at frackfreeoursupportes.org
- Turn up and support the protestors at the two sites under construction at Mission (DN10 6ES) and Blyth (DN22 8PA).

Any donations of food and other supplies are always gratefully received for the sites.
- Ask questions, do a bit of research (drill or drop.com: Friends of the Earth .uk; frackoff.org.uk; Frackfreenotts.org.uk; frackfreeunited.co.uk. Lots of YouTube videos: Gaslands; Fracking Farmhouse - Google away!)
- Have a chat with friends and family - there are still many people who do not know anything about fracking or the fact that it is coming to our neighbourhood.
- Some banks are heavily invested in fracking e.g. Barclays - switch banks!
- Switch to a 100% renewable energy provider e.g. Ecotricity' So Energy; Buld.
- And, of course, if you haven't already done so, write to your local elected representatives (writetothem.com) and let them know you do not want fracking in our area, or anywhere!
- Join Frack Free Warsop Facebook page or come to one of our events to find out more.

Local MP Ben Bradley Runs Mansfield 10k for Charity

Member of Parliament for Mansfield and Warsop Ben Bradley ran the Mansfield 10k last weekend to raise money for the mental health charity Mind.

The 28 year old MP completed the 10k run with a chip time of 48.41, under his personal goal of 50 minutes, coming 151st out of a total of 607 runners. Ben says:

"I'm really pleased that I ran the Mansfield 10k. The town was absolutely packed and the atmosphere was buzzing. Sporting events like this and the Tour of Britain are really positive for the whole of our district.

*"It was really good to be able to run the 10k for Mind. Mental health is such an important aspect of our lives, so I'm really pleased that I've been able to raise some money for them! Mind have also launched their 'Get Set to Go' campaign, which I'm really proud to be able to support.
It's designed to promote the mental benefits of physical exercise, so I'd definitely recommend anyone who is interested to take a look.*

"My goal for next year's 10k will be to beat my time from this year!"

The Talbot's New Look

The Talbot pub on High Street, Warsop has recently undergone a major refurb to give it a brighter, more contemporary feel.

The popular town centre venue closed on 1st of October for the works to commence which included new decor, a complete overhaul of the bar area as well as new flooring and seating areas.

The pub eventually re-opened after completion on 12th October but had their official opening event on the 13th which included live entertainment, disco and karaoke.

Proposed Closure of Meden Vale Surgery

Background to the engagement

The practice operates over two sites, The Medical Centre in Meden Vale and in the Primary Care Centre Warsop with a patient population of around 6135.

In July 2018 Meden Medical Services made the decision to apply to Mansfield and Ashfield Clinical Commissioning Group for permission to engage with patients regarding a proposal to close the surgery at Meden Vale. This can be done without losing any appointments or services and future proof the practice in the long term.

The rationale for the proposal was to:

The current rental lease is due to expire on 31/12/18. Therefore the practice has been reviewing the provision of core services and has concluded that it does not have sustainable capacity to make commitments of an equitable service.

The practice has been considering the future at this site for over a year, reducing sessions over time as servicing the site has become more difficult for the practice, threatening our ability to remain sustainable over two sites.

Previously the practice had 3 salaried GP's and Dr Allen the Senior Partner.

Unfortunately Dr Rubio resigned to move to Spain in December 2016, Dr McCormick retired in June 2016 and Dr Baglee resigned to take up a position nearer to her home in October 2017.

The practice has been unable to recruit either salaried GP's or Partners. This has left Dr Allen as the sole GP to lead the clinical team. Although the practice have excellent regular locum GP's. Dr Allen cannot provide the necessary leadership required whilst working across 2 sites.

Therefore the closure will benefit the medical staff and patients at the practice as they will have a wider pool of clinical knowledge/experience and support at one site.

The surgery at Meden Vale falls short of service standards and compliance. The building is getting older and needs considerable investment to bring it up to the standard of the Warsop Primary Care Centre. Therefore the a level of investment required outweighs the benefits.

We believe that the move to one site will put patient services at the heart of local community and offer an integrated one stop shop.

Additionally the proposed closure will help the practice to grow and expand the services that we are able to offer locally. We intend to work with local commissioners to provide additional services as and when they become available. We believe this will help with GP recruitment i.e. multi skilled staff at one site which is fit for purpose and future expansion.

The premise at Warsop is shared with another practice and offers outreach services from Kings Mill Hospital. We believe this will enhance collaborative working by creating a central hub.

Lighting up Mansfield in style this Christmas

This year's Christmas celebrations in Mansfield will begin on Sunday 18 November with the Big Switch On event.

Attracting thousands of spectators every year, The Big Switch On will again feature a variety of music acts, children's entertainment, panto stars and Santa himself before a spectacular laser show and fireworks display.

The day also marks the opening of a month-long Christmas Market, and includes a marching band and a host of festive activities in the Four Seasons Shopping Centre.

The event is just the beginning of a packed programme of festive entertainment with brand new attractions to wow residents and visitors.

Following approval at Full Council last week, Mansfield District Council will for the first time ever, host an ice rink in the Market Place during December.

All this takes place alongside Mansfield Palace Theatre's pantomime, Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs, Christmas Artisan markets, late night shopping, the Four Season's Grotto and more.

Further details about The Big Switch On and the ice rink will be announced over the coming weeks with the full Christmas programme available inside the next edition of My Mansfield, which will be delivered to homes across the district from 5th November.

Executive Mayor of Mansfield Kate Allsop said:

"The Christmas lights switch on event is well known for being a spectacular family show which never fails to get everyone into the festive spirit."

"I'm really excited about this year as it marks the start of an even bigger programme of Christmas entertainment. The ice rink will be a real spectacle and I hope as many people as possible from Mansfield and the surrounding areas are able to come along and have a go."

The month-long Christmas market is organised by Mansfield BID with financial support from MDC. The Switch On event is organised and funded by MDC with support from Mansfield 103.2 and Four Seasons.

If your business would like to contribute towards the month-long Christmas celebrations in Mansfield, a range of sponsorship packages are available - from town centre banners to naming rights of the ice rink. Please contact: 01623 463199 or email marketingandcommunications@mansfield.gov.uk.

Mansfield's Youth Mayor Elected for 2018/19

Mansfield's new Youth Mayor is Scarlett Sykes, of Samworth Church Academy, who received a total of 1,292 votes.

Scarlett, who is 15 and lives in Forest Town, said the election process was a great experience but admitted she had been nervous during the count, especially after just one vote separated her and another candidate after the first round of counting.

Scarlett, who is a keen rugby player, coach and referee at Mansfield, said:

"I really want to help young people and make sure their voices are heard."

Her manifesto pledges include increasing participation in sport, particularly among young women. She also wants to improve work experience and careers advice by creating better local business links within schools to mentor students about a wide range of professions and vocations.

Scarlett is pictured with the council's Chief Executive Hayley Barsby. Hayley said:

"Once again we are delighted to have a Youth Mayor dedicated to acting as an advocate for the young people in the local area. It's great to see somebody from Samworth elected this year and we are very pleased that Scarlett will be able to continue the good work in 2018/19 that Jake Davis did last year on behalf of our young residents."

James Mycroft (Manor Academy) received 1,170 first and second preference votes and Reanna Cooper (Bruns Academy) received 735 first preference votes.

Congratulations to Scarlett and well done to all the candidates.

What's going on at Sherwood?

What a fantastic start to our Autumn term at Sherwood.

The children have settled superbly and there is a real buzz around the school once again, especially as there are so many exciting events taking place and coming up. Here's a round-up of the new term so far.

Sherwood Coffee Mornings

Our family support worker Miss Rees has recently started a drop in session every Wednesday morning from 9-10am. It has been lovely to have parents/carers come and join us for a cuppa and a bacon cob, and share their thoughts on Sherwood School. Hopefully more parents/carers will join in over the next few weeks. It is always a joy to run these sessions, whether it is to hear views expressed or offer advice and guidance.

Bike-ability gets off with a grand departe!

In the spirit of the recent Tour of Britain, a group of Year 5 and 6 pupils have begun an exciting and essential course of cycling proficiency sessions. So far all the children involved are loving it and eager to get stuck in every week. Once they are geared up with their basics skills, the Sky's the limit!

Indian Day for Year 6

Year 6 enjoyed an Indian Day early in the term, where they tried Indian dancing and wore Indian clothes. Discussions took place around tolerance and respect of everyone. They also found out about different Hindu ceremonies. The whole school enjoyed an assembly about the Hindu festival of Holi. A great day was had by all.

Mrs Horton 6H

Spotlight on our Team

Sherwood has been fortunate to have a few new faces joining the team this half term and we would like to introduce them to you! First up, Miss Dawson.

My name is Miss Dawson and I have recently started at Sherwood Junior School joining the Year 5 team. I graduated 6 years ago in North Wales and since then I have taught around Lincolnshire and Nottinghamshire as well as teaching abroad in Qatar for just under a year. I love spending nights in with my family and my cat, Bella watching a film as well as horse riding and visiting new places during the holidays. I am really excited for this year at Sherwood Junior and looking forward getting involved in all the activities here with the children and community.

Thank you Miss Dawson

Y5 Space Centre trip is Out of this World!

The first of the school's educational trips blasted off recently, seeing the rather eager year 5 pupils visiting the National Space Centre. Given the opportunity to thoroughly explore the many outstanding areas of the museum, the children secured a deeper wealth of knowledge from the high quality and interactive exhibits: from experiencing a simulation of a real launch to discovering the true power of gravitational pull – you name it, they found it and they LOVED it!

The school would like to extend a huge thank you to our parent helpers as your continued volunteered attendance always ensures that we can keep trips happening every single term. If you are a parent/carer of a child currently attending Sherwood Juniors, please feel free to enquire at the school office about supporting the school in the future!

Sherwood Sprint to another Cross Country Success

Once again the school's cross country team proved that they are a dominant force in events. Storming from the very start of the girl's race, Elizabeth Harrison bettered her previous result of 11th to 7th in a much tougher field of runners, showing that Sherwood were definitely meant business. Her outstanding performance secured her a place in the Midlands School's Cross Country championships in February – well done Elizabeth! Next up were the boys and just like his sister, Joshua Harrison put on an excellent performance securing a comfortable top 25 place amongst a much larger field of runners. Close behind Joshua, the rest of the team were soon swiftly through the finish line: Leon Clark, Charlie Lee, Mitchell Smith, Billy-John Duffin and Delum Roberts. Every single one of them gave it their all with perhaps the best sprint finish belonging to Delum!

The team will be back in action in the next couple of weeks and we cannot wait!

Footpath & Countryside Group

Please check any bonfires for any hedgehogs that may have decided that a pile of wood is a great place to spend the winter.

Since the start of this century hedgehog populations in the countryside have fallen by more than a half and in urban areas they are down by about a third. I am aware that hedgehogs are still around in several parts of Warsop although they no longer regularly visit my garden. In rural areas, hedgehogs live along woodland edges and hedgerows in meadowland and rough pasture. In towns, they make use of gardens and green spaces. Between November and the end of March, when food is scarce, hedgehogs hibernate to conserve energy, remaining largely inactive. During the rest of the year they are mostly nocturnal.

The decline in rural populations is due to larger fields and the loss of hedges and copses. This has resulted in fewer nesting sites and less protection for hedgehogs. The scarcity of food such as earthworms and slugs in agricultural soils has also contributed to the decline. Additionally, it has been estimated that around 100,000 hedgehogs are killed annually on the roads, particularly on rural roads where higher speed limits and reduced lighting means drivers are less able to spot wildlife. This makes the urban population vital to the survival of hedgehogs in this country. We can help by linking our gardens with 'Hedgehog Highway' gaps in the bottom of fences, by creating more wild areas with log piles in gardens and by having hedgehog houses and feeding stations in our gardens.

The grass area in the centre of Church Warsop Doorstep Green has been mown for the first time in several years by the new land managers. As the cut material contained lot of scrubby plants the arisings were not removed. It will be interesting to see how many wildflowers appear next spring. When the green was first established there was a fine display but a lack of maintenance has allowed the coarser grasses to dominate. The mowing also revealed a few years worth of litter but between the Footpaths Group and the Future Greens project we have removed several sacks of litter. The wildflower meadow on the Carrs Local Wildlife Site has also received its autumn cut and bale. This summer's weather resulted in a disappointing number of wildflowers compared with previous years but hopefully enough will have seeded to give an improved display in 2019.

Now that grass cutting is complete for another year our volunteer work sessions will focus on clearance work on local wildlife sites before we move onto hedgerow management once the fruits have been consumed by the birds. New volunteers are welcome to join us on a Thursday morning or you may contact us for details of the 'Future Greens' project that may provide conservation and training opportunities in Warsop at other times.

Our next group walk is scheduled for Saturday 17th November. At this time of year, we usually wander around local woodlands enjoying the late autumn colours. We meet at 10am outside Warsop Library and either walk from there or travel to a starting point by car. More details nearer the time on our Facebook page or by contacting us by phone.

Mansfield's First Mamba Seminar a Success

More than 50 people from a variety of organisations attended a seminar to hear what Mansfield is doing to tackle Mamba and to share their own experiences and ideas.

Mansfield District Council, in conjunction with Bassetlaw District Council, hosted a learning workshop - 'Mamba and our towns: what is working and where are the gaps?' - at Mansfield Civic Centre yesterday (4 October). Following its great success, there are plans for other similar events in the future.

The seminar attracted representatives from various agencies including the Police, NHS, Framework, Change Grow Live (CGL), plus representatives from Leeds City Council's street outreach team.

The aim of the event was to share experiences and ideas on how to tackle the issue. There were presentations on outreach work, police enforcement and the challenges faced including the high level of mental health issues among the street community.

Cllr Bill Drewett, Portfolio Holder for Safer Communities at Mansfield District Council, said:

"It was very useful to hear other experiences and was extremely reassuring to know that here in Mansfield we are doing everything we possibly can."

"We are focusing on the individuals and offering them all the help and support possible to help them turn their lives around, alongside a strong police response to ensure enforcement action is taken where needed."

"It was acknowledged that this is a complex problem that requires joined-up commitment not just from councils and their community safety and outreach teams but also from public health and clinical commissioning groups (CCGs – which are part of the NHS)."

"We need to keep working together and learning from each other to ensure we continue to make good progress tackling this national issue."

Inspector Nick Butler of Nottinghamshire Police, said:

"This was a fantastic event and gave us all a chance to share ideas and talk about our own experiences to make sure our solution is as good as it can be."

"We have spoken to the College of Policing and they have said Mansfield is leading the way and as a result we have a number of other police areas coming to study our approach."

"Whilst we have a lot more to do I am very proud of our partnership approach to this challenge. The key thing for me is we are getting people off drugs and leading more productive lives. I'd like to thank Mansfield and Bassetlaw district councils for organising the event."

Following the workshop, a report summarising the day will be created and presented to the chief executives of the various organisations that attended.

MP Aims to Raise Profile of Mansfield Community Hospital

The Member of Parliament for Mansfield and Warsop, Ben Bradley, invited the Chief Secretary to the Treasury Liz Truss to Mansfield Community Centre.

Local MP Ben Bradley and Liz Truss were shown around the Community Hospital by NHS staff. As well as the tour, the pair met with hospital staff.

Mr Bradley said,

"It was great to be able to show off the Community Hospital to Liz Truss. It's really important that we shout about everything good in Mansfield and Warsop, and the Community Hospital with it's recent 'Outstanding' rating is definitely one of them."

"Along with the improvements Kings Mill Hospital has made recently, I think it really shows that our local NHS trust, the Sherwood Forest Hospitals Trust is really taking huge steps in the right direction. It's also been really good to chat to healthcare staff about the funding increase the government has pledged to the NHS."

Discussing the improvements, the hospital had made, and their recent rating, the Chief Secretary praised the hospital, saying "they've done a fantastic job getting outstanding"

She also went on to praise the work of individual staff at the hospital, as well as the Sherwood Forest Hospitals Trust.

The Friends of Thynghowe
Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

You are very welcome to join us on any of these events in the local part of Sherwood Forest.

On Saturday 3rd November

Autumn Get Together will be held at Sherwood Pines, starting at 10am. We will focus on the archaeology in the woodlands of Sherwood Pines connected to the training of soldiers based at Clipstone Camp. For about the first hour of the session, there will be a talk covering the camp and the training, then we will walk to view the large trenches. The route will be about 4 miles along forest tracks so suitable clothing and footwear will be needed. We may also take a look at the replica trenches that have been constructed in the woodlands. We will meet in the classroom (behind the Go Ape equipment). If traveling by car, Sherwood Pines parking charges apply, currently £6 for an all day pass.

On Friday 9th November

Another of landscape management sessions in the forest around Thynghowe. We will probably be clearing birch regrowth from Hanger Hill ahead of the geophysical survey planned for early December. We will meet at 10am at the Warsop Windmill forest barrier before driving to the site.

We are holding a walk around the forest on Saturday 1st December visiting sites that tell the story of the impact of the Dukes of Newcastle upon Tyne and Portland on the local woodlands. We will see evidence of their changes to the forest for pleasure and profit by telling the stories of sites including the Russian Log Cabin, the cross marking St Edwin's Chapel, the 19th century plantations and the rides through the woods. Meet at 10am at the Warsop Windmill forest barrier. This walk will take about 3 or 4 hours, wear appropriate footwear and clothing for winter in a forest and bring a hot drink!

How Helen Became Mansfield's First Five Star Tattoo Artist

A tattoo studio in Mansfield has become the first in the area to be registered with a new county-wide registration scheme - and has achieved the top rating of five stars.

Helen Molloy has been a tattoo artist for two years and has been running her own business, Trinity Ink, from her home in Eakring Road for the past three months.

"I feel that the star rating gives the customer a better opportunity to make an informed decision about where they would like to be tattooed. I decided to apply because I thought it was important to set a high standard when it comes to cleanliness, hygiene and safety, due to it being a home studio.""In the past home studios have been frowned upon but by setting high standards, I feel that clients can feel reassured when they visit. No customer should have health concerns when getting a tattoo."

Other businesses that use needles and blades are being urged to sign up to the Nottinghamshire Hygiene Accreditation Scheme which is being co-ordinated by local authorities across the county who are responsible for licensing tattoo, body piercing and beauty treatment businesses.

The voluntary scheme aims to improve hygiene and safety standards and is part of a wider strategy by Mansfield District Council to make the district a safer place to live, work and visit and improve the wellbeing of its citizens.

It supplements the inspections of tattoo studios which are carried out by the council as part of the required licensing process for these types of businesses to ensure a minimum standard of hygiene is achieved.

Operating in a similar way to the national food hygiene scheme for restaurants, the scheme costs £120 to join and for the initial inspection, and £60 for a re-inspection and re-rating.

The process last month of becoming rated took Helen about two weeks from application to being accredited.

"The inspection itself took about an hour and was really informative," she said. "Even though I got five stars I learned a lot about other techniques and practices which I found very helpful.""I was a bit nervous as this was my first business and I really wanted to break the stigma that surrounds home studios. I am very pleased toachieve five stars which demonstrates to the customer that they can be tattooed in a clean and hygienic environment. I was proud to be called clinical when I had the inspection.""I've had clients who are impressed with the rating and have since gone on to recommend me not just for the work I have done but also on the hygiene rating.""Being a tattoo artist is something I have always wanted to do since I was very young. I love art and drawing and this profession offers opportunities for people to express their artistic side. I like that it also gives customers the freedom to express themselves however they like."

Cllr Bill Drewett, Portfolio Holder for Safer Communities, added:

"Well done to Helen for achieving this five star rating. We hope other salons and parlours offering these kinds of services will join the scheme too, because public safety is something we take seriously in Mansfield.""Hygiene at tattoo and body piercing parlours is so important because the damage that can be done to customers at the hands of poor operators can be horrendous - and sometimes permanent.""I would urge local studios to sign up because it should help to enhance their business by increasing consumer confidence."

Businesses interested in the scheme can contact Environmental Health at Mansfield District Council on 01623 463492 for more information.

Have You Completed Your Household Enquiry Form?

Residents in Mansfield district are being urged to make sure they can vote at future elections by ensuring they are on the electoral register.

People who have not returned the Household Enquiry Form that was sent to every house in July, or responded to reminders will soon be visited at home by a canvasser.

The canvassers, who carry official Mansfield District Council identification, will not ask to enter residents' properties and will assist householders to complete the form on the doorstep. Some canvassers will be using portable electronic devices to collect information.

The aim of the form is to ensure that the electoral register is up to date and to identify any residents who are not registered so that they can be encouraged to do so.

The easiest thing to do is respond to the original form or a reminder online, by telephone or by post, using the pre-paid reply envelope. It is especially relevant for people who may have moved home in the past year.

Completing the Household Enquiry Form is a legal requirement and failure to do so could result in a £1,000 fine.

With Mayoral, District and Parish elections due to take place in Mansfield in May 2019, this is an opportunity for residents to make sure they will be able to vote.

Hayley Barsby, Electoral Registration Officer at Mansfield District Council, said:

*"I would encourage everyone to register to vote to ensure that you are able to have your say at future elections. To do this, simply check the form and respond as quickly as possible."For further information, residents should contact the Elections team on 01623 463345.
