FUN PALACES

Fun Palace to Celebrate the Creativity of the Warsop Community

A very special event is coming to Warsop this autumn. For one day only, The Shed – also known as The Adam Eastwood Building - will be transformed into the Warsop Fun Palace!

In celebration of the culture and creativity in our community, individuals and groups will come together on 7th October to share their skills and passion for art, crafts, music, dance, science, sports activities, nature and heritage - all under one roof!

Fun Palaces will take place nationwide during the first weekend of October. These free events are run by local people for local people, and celebrate culture at the heart of our communities. The Warsop Fun Palace is being coordinated by the team at Vibrant Warsop who are lining up an exciting and diverse programme of activities for the day. A variety of artists, musicians, teachers and performers will be sharing their skills with others. From mad science experiments to wall graffiti, from karate to knitting, from ukulele-playing to drumming – there will be something for everyone of all ages and abilities to try out and get involved in

Event Co-ordinator, Mike Payne says, "Bringing fun, creativity and colour to The Shed, this free event will reveal the creativity and skills which lie hidden within Warsop. Everyone is an artist and everyone is a scientist at our first ever Fun Palace!"

All are welcome to join in the fun from 11am to 3pm on Sunday 7th October at The Shed just off Wood Street in Market Warsop. Hot food and hot and cold drinks will be available at affordable prices. For more information on the event, visit www.vibrantwarsop.org.

Fun Palaces

Fun Palaces is a free, nationwide ongoing campaign for culture at the heart of community and community at the heart of culture with a weekend of action at the start of October each year. This year it will take place over the weekend of 6th and 7th October 2018. Each Fun Palace celebrates the unique skills and passions of local people – run by, for and with the local community. Fun Palaces create events that bring together arts, science, craft, tech, digital, heritage and sports activities – but above all people – sharing their own skills and passions, working and creating together, having fun together and, in doing so, building our own communities from the grassroots up. Vibrant Warsop

Vibrant Warsop CIC are a resident led, not for profit, Community Interest Company dedicated to Warsop Parish. They are a membership organisation with membership open to all community and voluntary groups in Warsop Parish. They aim to add value to all the work that is already happening in the parish and to 'energise community spirit' and ensure Warsop is successful, thriving and locally run. More information at: www.vibrantwarsop.org

The Shed, Warsop

The Shed is a community space off Wood Street in Warsop that is available for hire. Formally known as the Adam Eastwood Building, The Shed has been converted using funding from Big Warsop into a venue for the whole community. It can be used for all kinds of activities, including events, markets, parties, classes and workshops.

Warsop's "Real Poppy" Campaign

Warsop's "Real Poppy Campaign" had a great day at this year's Warsop Carnival which was held at the Carrs Showground on 8th July.

Eastlands Junior School also made a big impression with the judges which got the the 2nd place award with their war time themed float. Pictured right and below right are some of the children that joined in with the Best of British carnival theme.

Well done to you all.

Editor's Letter

Autumn is definitely here and it certainly seems a lot cooler after the long hot summer.

The Parish Council have been working on a neighbourhood plan for the past 5 years. The draft plan is now ready for consultation (see page 4). Do please comment as this document is an important legal framework when planning decisions are made.

Unfortunately, our local bank will soon be closing. Ben Bradley MP and our County Councillor have both echoed that this is not a wise decision... with Cllr Andy Wetton going further to state that with different management and better opening times, the bank could be an asset to the Lloyds banking group. Will they listen? Let us hope so otherwise we might end up being the nation's largest town without basic commercial amenities such as a bank or supermarket! See pages 8 and 9.

GARDENING MONTHLY...

General tasks and garden maintenance

Tidy borders

Keep on weeding and have a gentle tidy up in your borders but do try to resist the temptation of a thorough spring clean. Leave seedheads for the birds if you don't want to collect them and as much cover as you can bear for wildlife who will appreciate the winter shelter.

Fallen leaves can be left to rot down (or collected for leaf mould), however diseased material is another matter; make it a priority to clear and burn it to prevent pests and diseases overwintering courtesy of your kind hospitality! Put the rest of your garden rubbish (apart from woody stems) in the compost.

Start your compost

If you haven't already done so, start your compost going by buying a bin or building a partially enclosed area for a heap. It is vital to replace the goodness in soil after a hefty growing season and autumn produces masses of garden waste that will put invaluable organic richness back into the ground for next spring. Add a variety of different materials; spent vegetable and bedding plants, herbaceous leftovers, thatch, moss and cuttings from the lawn, weeds (but not the roots unless they have been through a shredder), hedge clippings, kitchen peelings and tea bags are ideal.

Turn once a week or so if you can and NEVER add diseased or pest-ridden material (such as diseased rose petals - heinous culprits) to your compost - it is a warm and welcoming nirvana for unwelcome guests who will reappear with a vengeance next year! Onto the bonfire with them without a qualm...

Prepare your soil for next year

Your soil is your most precious commodity, so start digging in compost, manure and as much organic matter as you can lay your hands on to replace the goodness in it. The earlier you start the better, especially if your soil is heavy. It can be left in a pretty rough state over the winter when the elements will break the clods down, making spring planting infinitely easier!

Watering

Hardly an issue at the moment! However, do keep an eye on your pots and containers in dry spells and check for wilting leaves before it is too late; all plants that keep their leaves continue to transpire, so should not be allowed to dry out completely.

Ensure trees or shrubs planted in the last couple of years on lawns or in areas of rough grass have a circle of clear earth around them - this should be kept clear to allow moisture to get to the roots. Mulching with bark or compost will help.

Planting

With the ideal planting conditions of autumn (warm moist soil), now is the time to plant container grown shrubs, trees, fruit bushes, perennials and bulbs. Even in damp conditions it is worth checking the rootballs of shrubs and trees are adequately moist when planting - heavy rain will not necessarily penetrate a rootball that has been allowed to dry out, so if it feels light, plunge into a bucket of water before planting.

Rake fallen leaves

Don't waste fallen leaves (except those perilous rose leaves and evergreens, which take too long to rot down) - given time they decompose into fabulously rich leaf mould - aka 'nature's soil conditioner of choice'. Rake up fallen leaves and chuck them into a simple frame to make leaf mould (black bin liners spiked with air holes will also do if you can bear the visual offense - but remember to dampen the leaves first). If left to linger on the lawn for long, the grass will turn yellow. Leaf mould takes about a year to mature (2 in the case of oak leaves), makes a great top dressing for woodland plants such as rhododendrons and is an excellent and FREE home-grown substitute for peat.

Birds

Our feathered friends will be starting to build their reserves for winter, so do please put out food and fresh water for them.

Wildlife experts recommend that we feed the birds year round as they soon become reliant on the food we provide. Their greatest time of need is during winter and spring, when their natural food sources are greatly depleted. Putting out food helps them survive the chilly winter months and ensures they are in good condition for the breeding season. Choose good quality wild bird seed, bird peanuts (remember to take them out of nylon mesh bags which can trap beaks and legs), suet and fat balls (these are great high energy foods and ideal during cold weather) as well as kitchen scraps such as crushed breakfast cereals, pinhead oatmeal, uncooked porridge oats, hard fats such as mild cheese, fresh and dried fruit, cooked potatoes and cooked rice. Bread is only an 'empty filler' so not ideal and remember never to put out mouldy food. Also do make sure your 'feeding station' has good all round visibility and is well out of curious cat range!

A plentiful supply of clean water is essential for drinking and bathing; melt ice on frosty mornings with warm water, ensure the inside of your bird bath remains roughened and do remember to change the water regularly.

THE FIGHT FOR A FRACK FREE WARSOP

NEW NEIGHBOURS COMING TO TOWN?

But that's in America...

That can't happen here, can it?
YES IT CAN!

The fracking industry wants to drill with no separation distance between well sites and our communities, and without having to get local planning consent. The Government is proposing to change the planning laws in order to let them do just that!

In a House of Commons Written Ministerial Statement (22 May 2018), Greg Clark, Secretary of State for Industry, announced proposals to classify exploratory shale gas drilling as "permitted development". This would remove your democratically elected councils AND YOUR OBJECTIONS from the planning process (and they can drill and frack under your house from 1 km away).

Building a 1.5 hectare exploratory well pad – which could result in noisy day and night drilling for up to eight months and require over 60 HGV journeys a day – could end up being treated the same in planning terms as putting up a garden shed.

The Government is also proposing that fracking in England should be treated as a Nationally Significant Infrastructure Project (NSIP) which would mean that planning applications for full-scale, multi-well commercial fracking would be decided by a government-appointed planning inspector, not the local planning authority. This would effectively remove all control of fracking projects from democratically elected county councils and local communities, which may result in thousands of fracking wells being drilled across the country and the industrialisation of the British countryside.

Yet the Government has refused to set either a minimum safe distance from homes or a limit to well density so it seems the only changes to the regulatory system they are prepared to make are to favour the shale gas industry, NOT to safeguard residents and the environment.

Map: Derbyshire County Council.

Ineos application for a drill site at Bramley Moor, Eekington, was recently approved by the Planning Inspector at appeal, after being refused by Derbyshire County Council - It is 300m from nearest home.

The Government is currently running a public consultation on these proposals, which is open to everyone to respond, closing date 25 October 2018. The proposals are a serious assault on our local democracy – the Government has perhaps realised that they are never going to persuade local communities to accept fracking, so they are now trying to find some way for the fracking industry to start drilling without consulting local people.

HOW YOU CAN HELP TO STOP THIS ATTACK ON LOCAL DEMOCRACY:

- Respond to the Government consultation which runs until 25 October 2018 and ask your elected representatives to respond, objecting to the changes: <https://www.gov.uk/government/consultations/permitted-development-for-shale-gas-exploration>
- Visit www.letcommunitiesdecide.org to get involved in the campaign and access online resources.
- Email James Brokenshire, Secretary of State for Housing, Communities and Local Government, at james.brokenshire.mp@parliament.uk demanding that the government withdraws its plans to treat fracking as permitted development and a NSIP.
- Email Claire Perry, Minister of State for Energy and Clean Growth, at Claire.perry.mp@parliament.uk asking her to do the same.
- Contact your MP and local councillors to voice your concerns and ask them, as your elected representatives, to contact James Brokenshire and Claire Perry.
- Check www.frackfreeunited.co.uk and your local groups for updates and guidelines – join Frack Free Warsop Facebook page.
- Sign The Frack Free Declaration on the Frack Free United webpage.

Are Shale Gas Sites Safe?

The Health and Safety Executive website states that "Blowout of hydrocarbons from wells is a major accident hazard for an installation or land borehole site, with the potential to result in major fire and explosion". <http://hse.gov.uk/offshore/wells.htm>. Earlier this year, a fracking well blowout at Powhatan Point, Ohio, led to the evacuation of residents up to a mile radius of the well and natural raw gas leaked from the well for weeks. Find out for yourself how fracking can impact health: Google "Fracking + Health".

In its 2015 report, the Department of Environment, Food and Rural Affairs warned that properties located within a 5 mile radius of a fracking operation, "may also incur an additional cost of insurance, to cover losses in case of explosion on the site".

It would appear that the Government is aware of this:

"There will be opportunities for the insurance industry in shale gas exploration and production", statement by Claire Perry MP, Minister for Energy, 21 May 2018.

Question: If there is no risk from living near a fracking site, why would there be a need for additional insurance cover?

But don't we need the gas?

The Government's support for the fracking industry is an indicator of the turmoil in its energy policy:

- The UK's largest fracking company, Ineos, want shale gas to power and feed their European chemical plants to produce plastics, NOT to heat your home!

- The Government's own 2017 'Gas Security of Supply' assessment report confirmed that fracking is not required for our energy security.
- A robust programme of home insulation would permanently reduce gas demand, cut imports and reduce fuel poverty. Since 2012, government support for such projects has fallen 58%. www.e3g.org
- In July 2018, The National Infrastructure Commission stated that moving to an electricity system mainly powered by renewable energy sources could be the "safest bet" in the long term, and become the lowest cost outcome for consumers. www.nic.org.uk
- Despite such evidence, the Government's policies have resulted in a collapse in support for renewable energy and conservation measures, whilst overseas based companies enjoy the "most generous tax breaks in the world" for fracking in your community.

Only 18 % of the UK supports fracking, compared to 85% who support renewables

(Government Energy and Climate Change Public Attitudes Tracker: Wave 25)

The Government supports the development of the shale gas industry across our area but:

Ben Bradley Update

So we've just come to the end of a busy recess where I've spent my time in the constituency getting around and about as much as possible, visiting some fantastic projects, as well as seeing some of the issues that residents are experiencing.

During recess, I've had meetings with Mansfield BID to discuss how we can improve Mansfield Town Centre, and how I can support them and the District Council. I've also met with the local Police Beat Manager for the Town Centre to see how the Police are tackling the recent drug related issues, and it's really positive to see a visibly increased police and warden presence in the Town Centre. I've also formally written to the District Council, asking them for an update on where they are with producing their 'Local Plan'. As you may know, local authorities are now required to produce a Local Plan to help the area and map out how the area can move forward, but Mansfield District Council as of yet have failed to do so. I'll be checking in with them again to make sure they make one that's fit for the whole constituency, including Warsop. As always, I'll continue to push the District Council to make sure that Warsop is a priority, and not an afterthought.

There have been a lot of issues over the last few weeks with travellers and traveller camps setting up around the constituency. I've had lots of local residents contact me directly with complaints about anti-social behaviour, noise, and litter, with many residents actually feeling quite intimidated by them. This is obviously completely unacceptable for residents to feel like this in their own homes. As it is Mansfield District Council who are responsible for dealing with travellers, I have contacted the Council directly and asked what tough actions they will take to ensure that we as a district don't experience these problems again. Nationally speaking, the government is currently looking into how we can strengthen the laws around trespassing, and how we can protect both people and property from travellers moving in, and I'll be supporting any actions that can prevent illegal traveller camps setting up in our constituency.

Finally, I also want to make people aware about a fantastic opportunity that is available to Warsop and Mansfield residents. Not many people know, but MP's can 'sponsor' a limited number of tours of the Houses of Parliament, subject to security restrictions and vetting. This gives constituents the chance to explore the Palace of Westminster on an official tour. You'd get to see some really interesting and historic things, as well as the actual debating Chamber of the House of Commons, where I spend a lot of my time. If you like history, politics or architecture then this is absolutely something you. If you think you'd be interested in going on a tour (and I would definitely recommend it) then send me an email to ben.bradley.mp@parliament.uk and we can look in to arranging it. As always, if any Warsop residents need to contact me with any issues, then please feel free to do so.

Warsop Inner Wheel

Let's Get this Party Started

We're setting the table and laying things out. Get the party started, we start to shout. With rumbling tums, we're watching the clock, as the guests start arriving, we're ready to rock.

The revellers are coming in to the hall, with giggles and laughter; you should see them all. In fancy dress costumes a sheer delight, who knew we'd have royalty, a glorious sight.

Rock stars and Romans, rainbows, and more. Roadworkers, Red ladies, ripe fruits galore.

Laid on the table are things good to eat, from raspberry pavlova, to rich roasted meat. Ready made sarnies, pork pies and treats. Let me count up the puddings all ready to eat. Risotto, radicchio, red peppers and cheese, it really looks scrumptious, eat plenty please.

The room was a buzz with music and cheer. Everyone was happy to bring their own beer. A welcome punch was given, to welcome them all, to Teversal Manor Village Hall.

At first we weren't sure, to do this or not, but Bingo was offered and uptake was hot!! Clickety click and a quacky duck. Everyones excited, we're chancing our luck.

The raffle was drawn and time was running out, we started the clear up, and got moving about.

Thanks to Elaine, our vice for this year, she was fantastic, a darling, a dear. For helping to sort out this party, for us. A brilliant atmosphere, a giggle and a buzz.

So please think of joining your nearest group, together with friends you'll have such a hoot.

Thanks to our members for making today, a fun afternoon, the Innerwheel way.

Craft and Crumpet

Some might say that the modern-day 'Inner Wheel' lady can find it quite a challenge in today's hectic and demanding world, to get a healthy work-life balance, and that goes for the retired ladies among us too.

The word 'hobby' doesn't often feature on our To Do lists and if it does, it probably isn't high up there with picking up the kids, food shopping, taxi driving the grandchildren somewhere, cleaning the house etc, etc.

But let us not forget what joy can be found in DIY crafts and partaking in craft work. It may even benefit your health as the Health Benefits of Knitting report by the Knit for Peace charity found. They recently uncovered that knitting can reduce depression and even the onset of dementia. Put simply though, we need to make room for DIY crafts in your life.

Our President Ruth being a bit of a self-confessed artyfarty type, has made time and held her first craft workshop for members and friends of the club. Much delight went around the room when it was announced there would be a 'Craft and Crumpet' night.

Clearly excited by the thought of a little crafting 15 members attended the two hour evening workshop to learn how to decorate a bottle, with President Ruth demonstrating the workshop. Our crafters were asked to bring along an EMPTY bottle of wine with the labels removed. Being Inner Wheel ladies, you can imagine how they struggled to find this most basic of requirements!

After a welcome greeting Ruth demonstrated the first stage of painting the bottle and took questions for the excited crafters watching. Some were watching with intent and some with wide eyes trying not to miss anything. Has anyone noticed that people tend to say they aren't creative at the start of a workshop? Well just you wait to see the results at the end of the night.

The phrase 'I could rip a tissue' was coined by Comedian Stu Francis back in the days of Crackerjack (I wonder how many of you shouted Crackerjack back at the screen!). But that is exactly what the crafters were learning to do. Rip a design from a three-ly napkin and stick it on a bottle. Simple really. These things usually are if someone shows you.

At 8pm the crumpet came out. As this was the round doughy bread variety, our crafters were only a little disappointed. A very big thank you goes to our kitchen helpers President Ruth's sister Jane and her daughter Lizzie, for serving tea, crumpets and helpful loveliness all evening.

Revitalised with the cheeky crumpet treat and a cuppa, the ladies continued with their bottle decoration and I think you will agree created a few wonderful masterpieces.

This is the first craft night that Warsop has held and we think it went really well, so well that we have another one planned for March next year. All proceeds from the craft night and from the craft items put out at Club meetings each month, will go towards the Clubs charity fund in support of the many great charities, locally, nationally and internationally that we support

If you like the look of what we do at Warsop and want to join our Inner Wheel family, please get in touch and come to one of our monthly meetings. If you love what we do but don't live in our area, go the association web page and look for your nearest district and club.

The Friends of Thynghowe

Thynghowe and the forgotten heritage of Sherwood

You are welcome to join The Friends of Thynghowe at our Annual General Meeting at 7:30pm on Thursday 25th October in the Fitzherbert Room at Warsop Parish Centre.

There will be updates on the latest research into Thynghowe and the surrounding forest, a review of the past year and a preview of future events plus questions and the usual historical chat. If you have wondered why we reckon Thynghowe is so important this could be your chance to find out.

October also marks the start of our winter conservation sessions in the forest to the east of Warsop. The trees and plants in the woodlands are as significant historically as the humps, holes and ancient stones so we contribute to the management of the area by the local Forestry Commission staff and other volunteers. Recent tasks have included controlling the vegetation on Hanger Hill, removing invasive species, hedge planting and clearing around the ancient oaks. On Friday 12th October we will be helping to clear a section of the banks of the Black Pool. It is enjoyable work with different tasks suited to a range of levels or strength and fitness. There is usually excellent cake provided! These sessions start at 10am and we usually finish around 2pm. Check our website or Facebook page for details if you would like to come along.

A couple more dates you may be interested in. On Saturday 3rd November our Autumn Get Together will be held at Sherwood Pines, starting at 10am. We are planning a walk around the forest on Saturday 1st December visiting sites that tell the story of the impact of the Dukes of Newcastle upon Tyne and Portland on the local woodlands. More details next month.

You can find out about our activities from our website and Facebook page and you can email us on thynghowe@warsopweb.co.uk or contact us by phone on 846281.

The Vikings of Sherwood project is supported by the National Lottery through the Heritage Lottery Fund.

Warsop Men's Probus

After a short business meeting President Hugh Ashton introduced the speaker Mr Mark North who is with the charity Freedom.

Based in Bolsover the charity helps people who are in debt and need help to turn their lives around for the better. The charity has reclaimed 2.8 million pounds worth of benefits, re housed 92 people in the last two years and provides food parcels for families. They now have centres in Bolsover, Shirebrook and is about to open a centre in Meden Vale and Warsop.

Two staff from Meden School with pupils George Davis and Cleo Copcutt attended the meeting to be presented with Bradley Award for the most outstanding pupils of the School. Both are now in the 6th form collage taking their A levels and are at the top of their groups when a few years ago they were both in the bottom of their groups.

21 members and guests had lunch in the Tudor Barn with the Ladies Probus club. The next meeting will be October 10th.

Hugh Ashton President

WARSOP MEN'S PROBUS CLUB

The club is for retired men.

Members include, Miners, Teachers, Ex military, etc

We meet on the 2nd Wednesday of month at 10am at the Stable Barn which is located to the rear of Tudor Barn to enjoy tea, coffee and biscuits.

The meeting starts at 10:30am and includes a talk from a guest speaker with a break for drinks from bar followed by a 2 course meal. Past subjects: Teaching, Photography, Life in military, ect

We are an informal group and some members who live on their own enjoy the company of like minded members

Phone Hugh Aston 01623846748 so a meal can be booked. If a meal is not wanted just come along and give it a go. You'd be most welcome.

Next meeting 12th September 2018

Welbeck Estates Brass Band

Welbeck Estates Brass Band took part in the first WELBECK WI FUNDAY on the 22nd July at the Lady Margaret Hall. They received so many kind remarks on the day and everyone did themselves proud!

Band members feel they are extremely lucky to have such a kind and friendly band, including members as young as 7 years old, who have only been with the band for around 6 months. They are such an inspiration to us all, their determination and hard work has shaped our band to be, "the place to be, to play/learn an instrument."

The band still has room for anyone wishing to learn an instrument or anyone wishing to get back into playing after a break or anyone who has a free night and can help, they would love to hear from you.

Welbeck Estates Brass Band are a great bunch of like-minded people who want to help support the local musicians of the future. They want to share this within the local communities through teaching and playing in and around the parish.

Anyone who is keen to learn an instrument please get in touch at ladyjbrown08@googlemail.com or 07889869940, you can also find them on Facebook on the friends of Welbeck Estates Brass Band.

MP raises concerns over Warsop bank closure

Mansfield and Warsop's MP Ben Bradley has written to Lloyds bank to raise his concerns at the closure of the Warsop branch.

Discussing the closure, Ben said:

"I had several Warsop residents contact me about the closure, so I wrote to Lloyds bank to outline my concerns. They have since replied to me, and unfortunately, they have explained that very few people actually use the branch anymore, so it's been a commercial decision to close the building.

"As the local Member of Parliament, I can't actually force them to change their minds and keep the branch open, so unfortunately on this occasion it does look like the branch will be closing.

"Lloyds have stressed to me that Warsop customers will still be able to access their banking services via the local Post Office."

Warsop Ladies ProBus

We are a group of ladies who meet at the Parish Centre the second Wednesday of each month.

We have lunch, and most meetings a speaker. Twice a year we try to have an outing. We have a different charity each year which involves various activities such as an Autumn Fair Garden Party.

We are open to new members and you would be very welcome to come and join us.

Thank you

Warsop in Bloom

Local Councillor and Warsop businessman Andy Wetton strives to enhance and preserve the beauty and future of Warsop Town.

Andy Wetton, who is a County, District and Parish Councillor, represents Warsop as an elected member and is pictured left showing the Town Centre floral display which he provided from his Ward Allowance.

And below is a copy of the letter Cllr Wetton wrote to the James Hadden, Senior Bank Manager of Lloyds Bank, in protest of the pending closure of their Warsop branch.

Cllr Wetton decided to take action after being approached by hundreds of local residents imploring him to help prevent the closure. He states in his letter that Warsop has an adult population of 13000 which, with more housing developments in the planning, this number will raise. Also see article on page 8.

WARSOP BRANCH CLOSURE NOVEMBER 2018

Dear James,

I was horrified to hear of the impending closure of your Warsop Branch. As a Local Councillor (County, District & Parish) and owner of a business in Warsop, I have been approached by hundreds of your customers imploring me to do something about your proposed Branch Closure. Whilst I fully understand commercial business decisions must be made, I feel this decision is premature given our Town's future expansion. Warsop currently has an adult population of 13000 and recent granted planning permission will see the town expand by over 400 houses. We are encouraging better Infrastructure & Services to cope with this future expansion.

Your Bank is at the heart of our community providing an irreplaceable service. Sadly, I believe Warsop Branch had been managed into decline as evidenced by your own figures to justify its closure on Lloydsbank.com Branch Review. The branch does not open Saturday Mornings (unlike other in the groups) but always opened late on Fridays till 6pm. This was always a very well used service and popular with your customers. However, staff would not have liked working later shifts, as often they would not finish until 7pm. Since stopping opening late on a Friday I'm sure there was a drop of usage reflected in your figures, there has been a succession of temporary managers, and a high turnover of staff. I believe with dynamic leadership / management, Warsop Branch could still have a huge future as part of our Town continuing to provide an invaluable service to your customers.

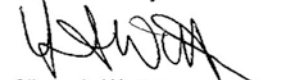

You are uniquely placed owning your own business property and no other bank in our town, therefore no competition (only the Post Office as you suggest, we can use for our banking needs). I am sure Warsop Branch could still be an asset to Lloyds Banking Group.

James, as I stated in my opening statement I represent the whole of Warsop & District as the elected member, so I am asking you to reconsider the decision to close Warsop Branch this November on behalf of my constituents.

I suggest the Branch could be managed and staffed for the future, I'm sure the Bank could profit from a more dynamic outlook and Warsop would continue to benefit from Lloyds quality of service.

I look forward to your cooperation and reply.

Yours Sincerely

Cllr Andy Wetton

What's Been Happening at Sherwood School?

Sherwood Juniors has once again opened its doors to a new year and a new term. As usual there is so much to look forward to here at the school; as well as so much to look back on and celebrate.

We welcome new faces, staff and pupils, and a new look to our site. We can whole heartedly say, we are looking forward to another successful and exciting year at Sherwood Juniors.

Spotlight on Sherwood – An inside point of view. 'Funfit' Fantastic!

Funfit is a superb morning provision run by a few dedicated members of staff. It is highly beneficial for our pupils and gives them a great boost in the morning.

Here are a few words from our resident Funfit host, Miss Rick:

"Throughout the school year, children are invited to take part in Funfit sessions which begin 5 minutes before the start of the school day. Children attending the session work on their core fitness, which helps develop fine motor skills. It is also a fun and active start to the morning!"

Miss Rick Y5

Keep up the great work Miss Rick!

Two First Places for Sherwood Gardeners

Gardeners at the school were awarded first place for their carrot entry at this year's Carnival. They also achieved first place at the Mansfield Garden and Craft Festival on September 1st!

Our gardeners are a hard-working, dedicated group of children who thoroughly deserve their ongoing success – and there will be more! Many thanks of course to Ken Scott for continuing to volunteer his time and expertise to the club. Finally, we would like to extend a thank you to the local community for their praises with regards to the garden; we greatly appreciate it.

So if ever you're walking past our school gates, feel free to stop and admire the children's hard work for a moment – you won't be disappointed.

Mrs Johnson

Summer Club Fun

Our very own Miss Rees volunteered her time over the summer to put on a special fun-filled summer club for some of our pupils. Here's her round up:

"We ran two successful summer club days back in August. Where the children enjoyed a range of activities such as pond dipping at the local river. The children were a credit to themselves and our school and thoroughly enjoyed discovering various pond-life."

"Furthermore, they made their own pizza's, giant bubbles and homemade playdoh! They were an absolute joy to have, and luckily the weather was on our side!"

Thank you Miss Rees!

BATTLE'S OVER - A NATION'S TRIBUTE

11th November 2018
100 Years Of Remembrance

On 11th November the United Kingdom and its friends overseas will mark the day, 100 years ago, when the guns fell silent at the end of the First World War.

In remembrance of the millions who were killed, or came home dreadfully wounded, over a thousand Beacons of Light will be lit around the country at 7-00pm. The event will also commemorate the efforts on the Home front by men and women who kept industry going and brought in the harvests. The beacons will symbolise the light of hope that emerged from the darkness of war.

With the kind permission of Harworth Estates, who own the land, and Tetron Point PLC, who are managing the site I have arranged to light a beacon on the old Welbeck Colliery Pit Tip. The beacon will be seen from miles away as there is a 360 degree panoramic view from the chosen position. Unfortunately there is no public access to the area so there will only be a few invited guests at the beacon lighting ceremony. It is hoped that many people in this area will look towards the beacon and reflect on the sacrifice that many of our forebears made.

Prior to the lighting a bugler will sound the Last Post, at 18-55. At 19-05 over 1000 Cathedrals and churches will ring out their bells across the nation, and beyond, in celebration of peace.

Also at 19-05 over 100 Town Criers throughout the United Kingdom, and around the world, will join together in an international Cry for Peace around the World.

More information on the day's events can be found at <https://www.brunopeek.co.uk>

The tip is being re-modelled and once complete will have a viewing platform at the top and members of the public will be able to use a footpath over the area.

Edwin A. Tattersall.

A Moving Moment Just two doors up

Damian & Kt of 'Damian Howe - Carpets, Vinyls, Laminates & Cleaning,' a long standing local business which offers a quality flooring service in the Town, has recently moved to a new location on the High Street.

Their shop, which was located at 26a High Street, has moved just a couple of doors along to 30a High Street. Needless to say they are still offering the same amazing service and fantastic choice of quality flooring as they always have.

Maun Valley Trail Reopens Following Precautionary Closure

A section of the Maun Valley Trail has reopened after being given the all-clear after bacteria was found on the path following several water leaks.

The path was closed from Old Mill Lane, Forest Town, to the other side of the stone bridge that goes over the River Maun on 19 July after tests revealed contamination. Fencing and closure signs that were put up at all access points in this location have been removed and the car park has reopened.

Mansfield District Council's Environmental Health team has completed thorough and difficult investigations into reports of underground water leaks in the area. Environmental Health Officers worked with the private owners of nearby properties to ensure a significant mains water leak along with two smaller water leaks in the area were repaired. A drain has also been capped off.

Following these repairs, an inspection of the footpath confirmed the footpath was dry and the land on either side of the affected part of the path was drying out.

Executive Mayor of Mansfield Kate Allsop said:

"We take the health and safety of our residents very seriously and closed the path as a precautionary measure.

"We are satisfied that the leaks in the area have been fixed and there is no further risk to the public. Thank you for your patience."

The area is the lowest point in a valley, known locally as Flood Dykes. Although some flooding in this area is not unusual, the recent warm weather highlighted a possible leak.

The flooding was not the result of any improvement work carried out on the route by Mansfield District Council in January 2017. The council had previously said that the risk of infection was low as long as people had good hygiene standards. It is generally good practice to wash your hands before eating, drinking or smoking.

Update on Victoria Street fire

Demolition work is expected to take place at a derelict building that is structurally unsound after a large fire in Mansfield on Tuesday night.

The former Bombardier building on Victoria Street was handed back to the private owner on Thursday evening. The owner has arranged for demolition contractors to arrive on site and work is expected to start over the weekend. Mansfield District Council's Building Control team is working with the demolition company to make the building safe.

The council's Housing Needs team is continuing to support the residents of four properties and the priority is to make sure they can return home as soon as possible. Victoria Street remains closed between Rooth Street and Portland Place and security guards are in place 24 hours a day to prevent access and ensure public safety.

Businesses that can be accessed from Rooth Street are still able to open to the public. The council has covered the payment machine in Garden Road car park to support affected businesses and their customers with free parking during this time.

Mike Robinson, Director of Economic Growth at Mansfield District Council, said:

"The safety of the public and their property is our main priority and we'd like to thank the residents and businesses in the area for their patience. We will remain in direct contact with those affected and provide updates when possible."

Who does Brighter Futures support?

People who:

- Want to increase their independence
- May have a learning disability, autistic spectrum condition or acquired brain injury
- Need help with tenancy-related support or improving their health and wellbeing.

What kind of support is available?

We offer a flexible service, personalised to you. You can tell us what help you need and we can work together to agree how to go about this.

We can help with things like finding accommodation, accessing specialist services, dealing with debts, budgeting and claiming benefits, finding local courses or activities among many other things. We can support you in a range of ways, which could include one to one visits in your own home or out in the community, attending groups or activities or practical courses run by Skills Plus.

Will I have to pay for this support?

No. It is paid for by Nottinghamshire County Council so you won't need to pay for it out of your personal budget or any other fund.

What is the average length of time I will be supported for?

The length of service will depend on your needs, with the aim of increasing your independence.

We also need volunteers to help with befriending, our social groups, travel training and/or taking service users to health appointments.

Who do I contact for more information?

For more information or to make a referral, contact the service below. You can refer yourself for support, or someone that is already helping you can make the referral on your behalf.

Woman Must Pay £430 After Waste was Fly-tipped

A Mansfield woman has been ordered to pay £430 in fines and costs by magistrates after waste removed from her home by a scrap man was later found fly-tipped.

Christine Baker, aged 56, of Chaucer Street, was charged with one offence of failing to comply with her householder duty of care contrary to section 34(2A) Environmental Protection Act 1990.

She was due to stand trial at Mansfield Magistrates' Court on 3 August after pleading not guilty at an earlier hearing. However she changed her plea before the trial started and admitted the offence.

She was charged after an investigation by Mansfield District Council into a large amount of fly-tipped waste found on Oakfield Lane, Mansfield Woodhouse, on 11 August 2017.

The court was told that the waste included a sofa, pieces of wood, wooden furniture, packaging, pieces of carpet, a vacuum cleaner, plastic sheeting, broken toys, two mattresses, a bedframe, as well as faecal matter and general domestic waste.

Evidence found in the waste was linked back to Christine Baker who told council officers she had paid an unknown scrap man £70 in cash to take the waste but had not checked to see if he was officially registered to dispose of the waste.

Fining her £200 for the offence, the magistrates told Baker that she had "made a serious error of judgement". They also ordered her to pay £200 towards prosecution costs and a £30 victim surcharge.

After the case, Executive Mayor of Mansfield Kate Allsop said:

"Using an unlicensed scrap man proved to be a very expensive way to dispose of some waste for this householder in the end.

"When getting rid of rubbish it really does pay to use properly registered waste carriers - it might cost a little more but is it worth risking a criminal record and stiff financial penalty by using a possible rogue trader on the cheap?

"It is these rogue traders who often create the disgusting fly-tips around the district which cost the council nearly £70,000 to clear up last year.

"But they often escape prosecution because their customers do not get a receipt for their services which includes verifiable contact details. It is then that householders face the consequences with prosecutions such as this.

"If people do not want to see these unsightly heaps of rubbish by the roadside or risk a prosecution, then using licensed waste carriers will go some way to preventing both."

Innovative Plans to Tackle Mamba use in Mansfield

Mansfield District Council has become the first council in Nottinghamshire to take an innovative new approach to tackling antisocial behaviour caused by the drug Mamba.

The council already has both homeless and mental health outreach workers helping members of the street community, but from this week they have been joined by an officer dedicated to dealing with substance misuse.

This ground-breaking approach aims to break the cycle of dependence on Mamba and Spice as well as other drugs and alcohol, tackle the root causes of substance misuse and encourage users to make permanent changes to their lifestyle.

The council has been working with the Police, and other partners including Framework, Change Grow Live (CGL) and Mansfield Homeless Network, in a bid to resolve the unprecedented issue of antisocial behaviour related to Mamba use in Mansfield Town Centre over this last year.

The outreach workers get to know each individual so that they can offer tailored support in order to make life changes that will help the community by reducing antisocial behaviour and dependency on services.

Changing long-standing habits is complicated and the first thing needed is willingness on the part of drug users to accept help and a desire to beat their addictions. This is one of the many difficulties faced by the outreach workers as their help is often turned down.

Executive Mayor of Mansfield Kate Allsop said: "We can't stress how seriously we are taking this issue as we understand the impact it is having on residents, businesses, market traders and visitors. We are using all the enforcement powers available to us, along with the Police who have made this their top priority - but enforcement alone doesn't work.

"We have successfully helped a small number of people with complex needs turn their lives around in the past and we see this extra resource as key to building on this work.

"However, this isn't something that is going to be resolved overnight and we are constantly reviewing what we are doing and looking at what others are doing nationwide to ensure we are doing all we can."

As well as the help and support for users, there are more police officers and Neighbourhood Wardens working in the Town Centre than ever before. The Police have one sergeant, six constables and four (soon increasing to six) PCSOs dedicated to the town centre issues. They are working closely with the council's Neighbourhood Wardens, Antisocial Behaviour officers, CCTV and Legal teams.

Inspector Nick Butler said: "Although Mansfield town centre is safe statistically, we understand how people feel when they see people suffering the effects of drugs. Our increased police presence is about providing enforcement as well as reassurance and ensuring that the town is a happy and vibrant place for everyone. Mamba supply, possession and use along with rough sleeping and ASB remain a priority. We will continue to act on information received from the public in order to get positive results."

As of 14 September, the joint police and council town team have made, 43 arrests and issued 116 Direction To Leave notices.

A drugs warrant conducted in the town centre last week resulted in two people being dealt with for possession of drugs. All this enforcement work will continue to send out the same message - that antisocial behaviour on the streets of Mansfield will not be tolerated.

June and Tony Harvey, Garden Competition winners

Hat-trick of Wins for Garden Competition Champions

Mansfield couple Tony and June Harvey have notched up a hat-trick of wins in Mansfield District Council's coveted Best Kept Garden competition after scooping the top prize for the third year in a row.

The couple's colourful floral displays, topiary and environmentally friendly approach to gardening at their home on the Grange Farm Estate impressed the judges who awarded them a Gold Award for the third year. They also won £100 in prize money, sponsored by Mansfield District Council.

The winners of the annual competition were announced at the Mansfield BID Garden Festival in the Market Place on Sunday 2 September.

The couple's garden was described as "absolutely fantastic".

The judges added: "The planting throughout was a pleasure to see. From the topiary on the front, to the plants as you walk through the tropically planted carport into the back garden were all truly excellent. Every nook and cranny is planted, creating interest throughout the garden."

The competition is held annually to encourage people in the district to care for their gardens and help to make Mansfield a greener and more pleasant place to live.

Cllr Andrew Tristram, Portfolio Holder for the Environment and Wellbeing, said: "Well done to all those who took part in this year's competition - there were some truly impressive entries which gave the judges a difficult job.

"We had two very worthy winners in Mr and Mrs Harvey, who have shown for three years now that their dedication and green fingers really are the seeds of their success."

Second place winner Jean Goodall's garden

Silver Gilt Award - sponsored by Mansfield District Council

Jean Goodall (second place)

The judges said of Jean's garden: "The back garden was an array of colour from annuals and perennials and the added water feature and pond were impressive. Climbing plants complemented the excellent hanging baskets and planters, all grown by Jean."

Third place winner Deb Haslam's garden

Silver Awards

Deb Haslam (third place), Paula Barrett, John Ager, and Corinna Brown

The judges said of Deb's garden: "A superb effort in Deb's first year of entering and full credit goes to her for her hard work keeping the garden clean and tidy and interesting. A combination of shrubs, perennials and annuals were planted throughout and were colourful and healthy."

The judges said of wheelchair-user Paula's garden: "The garden is paved and with a large number of colourful raised sleeper beds. The entire garden was well presented and well maintained, planted with perennials, grasses, annuals and the odd shrub, adding additional interest."

The judges said of first-time entrant John's balcony garden: "The colour and attention to detail were impressive. The garden showcased planted containers with various plants, including lavenders, begonias, petunias, herbs and two stunning bougainvillea, as well as some topiary and alpines. It was a superb effort by John in such a small area to work with."

The judges said of Corinna's cottage garden style plot: "This is the second year Corinna has entered the competition and it was looking very colourful, with a vegetable area, lawn and borders, leading to paving with planters and clematis in full colour. An excellent effort!"

Bronze Awards

Maxine Chapman and Zoe Haslam

The judges said of first-time entrant Maxine's garden: "A lovely front garden meets you on entering the driveway with a good variation of plants, colours and garden ornaments. A superb effort!"

The judges said of Zoe's garden: "This was Zoe's first time entering her garden and full credit goes to Zoe for her hard work keeping the garden clean and tidy and interesting. A combination of shrubs, perennials and annuals were planted throughout and were colourful and healthy during the judging."

Footpath & Countryside Group

We appear to be reviving the tradition of walking the Warsop parish boundary. In October 2016 we walked the entire boundary to mark the anniversary of the 1816 perambulation of Warsop Manor and last year we followed the western part.

On Saturday 6th October we are planning to walk the section that in 1816 was called the 'Forest Round' following the boundary as closely as possible using public paths. We will meet in the Carrs car park at 10am before walking up Cuckney Hill to join the parish boundary. We will then head eastwards to Meden Vale and Hazel Gap then south through Birklands Forest to the Parliament Oak and Peafield Farm. By the time we have returned to Market Warsop we will have covered over 12 miles. You are welcome to join us but check our Facebook page or phone us (details below) in case there are any last minute changes.

There is some good news regarding the Doorstep Green, the open space between Carter Lane and Wood Lane at Church Warsop. After a period of uncertainty over who was responsible for managing the area Nottinghamshire County Council will be caring for it. Once the broken play equipment has been removed and the overgrown trees and hedges have been cut back the likely maintenance will involve an annual mowing of the central grassland area and a couple of cuts along the paths. The Footpaths Group hope to continue mowing the paths and managing the hedge alongside the bridleway (as long as we have enough volunteers). Once the Doorstep Green is looking more loved it will be down to us in the local community to ensure that litter ends up in a bin, dog mess is picked up and the area is once again a great place to spend a relaxing few minutes.

Sookholme Lane

Via East Midlands (who maintain Nottinghamshire's highways for the county council) have been improving the surface of the Bath Lane and Sookholme Lane byways. Hopefully this will enable us to walk along these attractive routes with dry feet after it has been raining!

The dry summer has been disappointing for wildflowers and butterflies. The parched grasslands have supported fewer flowers than in previous years and those that have bloomed have been smaller than usual and have not lasted for long. I have seen few butterflies over summer and cannot recall having seen a Ringlet or a Speckled Wood this year. Ringlet numbers declined nationally last year and I suspect that there is no sign of a recovery locally. When I checked The Carrs wildflower area alongside the river I found most of the flowers that I had noted last year were still there but in smaller numbers. On a more positive note I have had two reports of water vole sightings along the river and I have spotted a kingfisher between Burns Bridge and the Hills & Holes on several occasions.

Thousands Welcome Tour of Britain Cyclists to Mansfield

Thousands of people lined the streets of Mansfield to welcome the Tour of Britain and 109 of the world's top cyclists to the district for the second year in a row.

The Stage 7 winner, Ian Stannard, crossed the finish line shortly after 3.45pm after a rain and windswept 139-mile journey through Nottinghamshire from West Bridgford.

Other participants included the eventual Tour of Britain 2018 winner Julian Alaphilippe, and the biggest current names in cycling, this year's Tour de France champion Geraint Thomas and multi Tour de France winner and current Giro d'Italia winner, Chris Froome. Despite the weather, spectators gathered at key points along the Mansfield route while the largest crowd lined the final kilometre down Chesterfield Road to the finish line outside the Civic Centre. Many wore Robin Hood hats, waved flags and banged the barriers to make as much noise as possible.

Cllr Dave Saunders, Portfolio Holder for Regeneration and Growth at Mansfield District Council, said:

"For the second year in a row we have successfully demonstrated Mansfield's ability to attract and host the Tour of Britain.

"This is exactly the kind of major event we hope to bring to Mansfield more often in the future – for the benefit of businesses, residents and visitors as part of the council's wider vision to put Mansfield on the map as a good place to live, work, visit, and invest in.

"Thank you to everyone who supported us in bringing the Tour of Britain to Mansfield again. Not only does it encourage people to get more active and bring the local community together, it also showcases Mansfield to a global audience.

"The first of our lasting legacies has already been created in the form of a wooden sculpture of a link from a bike's chain but there are many more plans in the pipeline and these will be announced in due course."

The Executive Mayor, Kate Allsop, presented the prize to Ian Stannard before cycling fans flocked to the Civic Centre car park in a bid to get selfies and autographs as the cyclists prepared to board their team buses for the journey to London.

Earlier in the day school children, women (as part of Mansfield Girls Can initiative) and families had the opportunity to cycle up and down the final 100m to the finish line ahead of the professionals. The Summer Festival Finale in Chesterfield Road Park featured free entertainment for all the family including live music, lots of cycling-related activities and sports taster sessions as well as circus skills and face painting.

The council would like to thank residents, businesses and motorists for their patience and understanding during the unavoidable disruption created by hosting an event on this scale. It would also like to thank all the businesses and residents for their efforts in decorating the town with bikes, banners and bunting.

Highlights of the event can be seen on the council's Facebook page, @mymansfielduk. There is also an opportunity for people to send feedback to the Tour of Britain organisers in a short online survey about the event at bit.ly/ToB18SS.

Sizzling Summer Festival

Hundreds turned out to enjoy the first Mansfield Summer Festival of the year at King George V Park on Thursday 26 July.

The sun shone down on families who enjoyed a day of fun activities including many with a cycling theme as Mansfield's involvement in the Tour of Britain race in September was launched at the event.

Two Tour of Britain cyclists, Graham Briggs and Toby Horton turned up at the festival to help promote the race, meeting fans and posing for photos - they also joined in the Go Extreme bike agility sessions.

Festival visitors were also able to enjoy live music, Punch and Judy shows, children's activities, arts and crafts and pony rides. White Post Farm stole the show with their petting zoo. In the Arena children took part in the Wobbly Olympics, balance workshops and mixed sports activities.

Executive Mayor Kate Allsop Portfolio Holder said:

"It was great to see so many families getting out and enjoying some school holiday fun in one of our award-winning parks.

Great Pilgrimage 90

Branch members Jason Hood and Kay Hickinbotham were humbled by their experiences in Belgium, visiting the battlefields and taking part in the Commemorations at The Menin Gate.

Thousands of Legion members represented their communities in Ypres.

They remembered not only those that made the ultimate sacrifice but all those who left their towns and villages from all over the world to fight for our freedom.

Standard Bearers and Wreath Layers gathered from across the World to pay their respects.

Every branch that attended now has the honour of displaying the GP90 Scroll on their Standard. (left).

Poppy Appeal

It is that time of year again as we approach the celebration of 100 years since the end of The Great War. Remembrance Sunday falls on the 11th November, as it did in 1918.

The Civic parade will again leave Carr Lane about 10:15 ready for the service at the War Memorial about 10:45.

We are again looking for volunteers to help us in Morrisons, collecting for the Poppy Appeal. We need help between 9am on Monday the 29th October through to 5pm on Saturday the 10th November. You can do as little as 1 hour collecting!

Drop-in

The October Drop-in will be on Friday the 5th at Warsop Town Hall, 10 to 12 noon. (1st Friday of every month). Anyone needing help or advice can just drop in at the town Hall on the 1st Friday of every month between 10 am and 12 noon, or ring 0808 802 8080 between 8 am and 8 pm 7 days a week.

Next meeting

Our next meeting is on the 8th October at 7.30 pm (2nd Monday of each month). Ex-Servicemen's Club, Carr Lane, NG20 0BN. Anyone is welcome to attend our meetings and potential members do not have to be serving or ex-serving to join.

DUKERIES Singers

Jan Towler
Your Local Choir

To paraphrase a (quite old) popular song.
"What a difference a month makes."
From struggling to keep the essentials watered,
we are now firmly fixed in the season of "mists and mellow fruitfulness", clearing out the greenhouse, lifting taters, chucking out or cutting back the old plants and filling pots and borders with winter pansies and bulbs.

The Choir is also in mellow mode with preparations for Christmas well under way. We rehearse every Wednesday evening from 7-30pm until 9-00pm in the Concert Hall at the Dukeries Academy, Ollerton. This is best accessed via the Leisure Centre entrance and car park.

Our Concert bookings so far are:

Thursday 29th November 2018 - 5:00pm
Singing in Edwinstowe High Street at the turning on of the Christmas Lights

Saturday 8th December 2018 - 7:00pm
Our Annual Christmas Concert at the Jubilee Hall, Ollerton, at

Friday 21st December 2018 - 6:15pm
Singing at the Masonic Hall, Mansfield

We also have as yet, unconfirmed engagements on the gallop up to Christmas. So, if you would like the Choir to help you celebrate your own Christmas, Charity, Fund raising event or just "a bit of a do," our Concert Secretary Phil. on 01623 822070 would be delighted to hear from you.

Don't miss out on a trip to Leonard's Scare School or prepare for a Wicked Costume Party on park. Get your picture taken at each stage as you transform into some seriously scary characters, from a wicked witch to Pumpkin Peat. Start preparing your costume and book your tickets today.

Kate MccGwire's Exhibition

The Harley Gallery - 12pm

Friday 19 October 2018

Join artist Kate MccGwire, internationally renowned British sculptor, for a preview of her solo exhibition.

Kate uses natural materials to explore the play of opposites at an aesthetic and visceral level; familiar yet otherworldly, beautiful yet disgusting; tranquil yet malicious.

Since graduating from the Royal College of Art in 2004 her uncanny sculptures have been exhibited at the Museum of Art and Design (New York), Musée de la Chasse et de la Nature (Paris) and recently at Glasstress, an official collateral event of the Venice Biennale. One of her most recent exhibitions included a sculpture made from 20,000 crow feathers at London's Saatchi Gallery. She was awarded the Jack Goldhill Award for sculpture in the 2018 Royal Academy Summer Show.

Places are limited so advance booking is required. To book call 01909 501700 or e-mail portlandcollection@harleygallery.co.uk - please sign in at Reception when you arrive.
